FIRST EDITION.

MIDNIGHT.

THE CAPITAL.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21, 1869.

Washington specials say that the Government repudiates Sickle's action as exceeding his instructions, and pledges itself to censure him.

RETURN OF PRESIDENT GRANT.

The President has telegraphed to Gen. Babcock that he will return to Washington at noon to-morrow.

MOVEMENT OF DISTILLERS.

The distillers in some of the whisky districts have been making overtures to the revenue officers, to the effect that they can make more money by running their distilleries according to law, provided all distillers do the same, than by making illicit whisky, and incurring the risk of detection and consequent penalties. They therefore propose to form an association to aid the revenue officers in detecting dishonest distillers.

WHEREABOUTS OF MINISTER CURTIN.

Advices received from His Excellency Andrew G. Curtin, state that owing to the prolonged absence of the Emperor from St. Petersburg, it has not been possible yet to present his credentials as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to that Court. He was, till lately, at Dresden with his family, under the instructions of Secretary Fish, awaiting the return of Minister Gortschakoff from London, when he will be presented. Hon. T. J. Coffey, the Secretary of the Legation, accompanies the ex-Governor, and has placed his children at school at Dresden. The health of Minister Curtin has been good, and he has received during his visit many attentions from not only American, but English, French and German tourists at Dresden, who are enthusiastic in their expressions of admiration of our Pennsylvania Ambassador.

CHICAGO.

The California Pioneers—Their Reception in Chicago—They will be in Pittsburgh on Friday.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—The California Pioneer excursion party reached this city at seven o'clock last evening, and are now quartered at the Sherman and Tremont houses.

This forenoon a commissary car well filled with the necessaries of life, as well as the luxuries, was despatched from the city by Drake, of the Tremont house, in the direction of the excursionists. It met them at Joliet, and the party, which it was soon discovered were both hungry and dry, did ample justice to the good things they found in the commissary car. There was enough for all the hungry and dry ones.

A Committee of Chicago citizens took a train of Pullman's cars and met the excursionists at Rock Island Junction. Here the two trains were connected, and came in together. On the way to the city a lively and cordial interchange of salutations, courtesies and good feeling took place. On reaching the Chicago depot an abundance of carriages, with a band of music, were in waiting, to which the excursionists were quickly transferred, and moved with the procession to the two hotels named.

The excursion party numbers about two hundred, about one-third of the number being ladies. The male portion is composed of large, fine-looking and stalwart men. They all wore a badge consisting of the picture of a white bear surrounded by a wreath made up generally of the national colors.

The party will remain here until Thursday morning, when they will leave for Philadelphia via Chicago, Pittsburgh and Pennsylvania railroad.

To-morrow they will be shown the curiosities of our city and in the evening will be entertained with a grand banquet.

HALIFAX.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HALIFAX, N. S., September 21.—News from Newfoundland says: The country is becoming agitated by the confederation discussion. The unionists are well organized and have a large part of the press in their favor. They have issued a campaign paper, and look forward with confidence to a victory at the election. The anti-unionists are by no means idle. Their steamer has made trips about the colony carrying anti-union speakers, and no labor is spared to defeat the confederation.

In the course of a few weeks a proposition will be made to the government of Prince Edwards Island by the government of Canada, in regard to the terms by which that island will be received into the confederacy. If the former government think the propositions made by the Dominion equitable, the House will at once be dissolved and the whole question submitted to the people.

Universalist Convention.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BUFFALO, September 21.—A Convention of the Universalists of the United States assembled to-day, Rev. Bartholomew, of Auburn, presiding.

Twenty-one States are represented.

Rev. W. Bruce, of Indiana, read a report on Sunday Schools, showing the cause generally prosperous and recommending a closer union between the Church and Sunday School.

Rev. Rexford, of Ohio, read the annual report on the state of the Church—a brief document.

Rev. E. H. Chapen, of Massachusetts, read a report on Educational Colleges. All are prosperous, though some need further endowment, particularly those at Clinton and Canton, New York, and Galesburg, Illinois. More than fifty thousand dollars have been raised, towards the Smithson Academy to be immediately erected at Logansport, Indiana. The average number of pupils in the Universalist schools the past year, was one thousand four hundred and fifty, of which thirty three are theological students.

The Convention will probably sit the entire week.

NEW YORK CITY.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, September 21, 1869.

It appears that the frauds discovered in the Methodist Book Concern consist in the alleged fact that a son of Dr. Porter, one of the agents, has received commissions for the past eight or nine years averaging not less that seven per cent. for purchasing printing paper for the Institution—that is, the agent permitted his son, who is a paper broker, to charge a heavy commission for doing what it was the agent's duty to do himself. Report says the purchases on which commissions have been allowed, amounted to $150,000 per annum, and also that the son sold paper to the concern at rates which gave him a greater profit. Irregularities are also reported in the binding department, but no particulars are known. A rigid investigation is progressing, and the implicated parties have been dismissed.

Wm. Varley, alias Reddy, the blacksmith, was arraigned for trial this morning in the Court of General Session. The court room was densely thronged. The complainant, Lawrence Graham, failing to appear, Reddy was remanded to the city prison.

The Committee appointed by the Citizens' Association, Chamber of Commerce and Produce Exchange, have called a convention of the representatives of all Boards and Associations throughout the State interested in the management and trade of canals, to meet in New York on the 19th of October, to confer for the purpose of instituting reforms in the management of canals. The Committee of the Citizens' Association charge that the condition of the canals is deplorable; that the State moneys have been fraudulently disposed of, &c., and suggest the reforms needed, and point out officials who have been guilty of neglecting their trusts.

It appears that the insurance case alluded to yesterday was one where there are two claimants—the children of a first wife as heirs of their mother, and the second wife as creditor, to repay money gambled away in stocks by her husband, who committed suicide. The Royal Insurance Company is sued by both parties, and simply declines to pay either party until a decision is given by the Court as to which is entitled to the money.

The ship Yosemite has cleared for San Francisco with 1,000 tons of ordnance, etc., for Mare Island Navy Yard. The Semaramis, to sail soon, is to take out a similar freight.

Mary Eanis, who has continued to draw a pension as the widow of Michael Eanis, a deceased Union soldier, although since married to James King, has been held for trial.

The cases admitted to the Quarantine hospital from the French Corvettes D'Estres, are not yellow fever, but merely intermittant fever and debity.

The Journal of Commerce learns from a gentleman who is in a position to know what is going on among the Cuban revolutionists, that Gen. Cespedes, President of the Cuban Republic, has taken the field in person as commander of all the forces, and Gen. Jordan, who recently held that position, is made chief of Cespedes' staff.

Mr. Koopmanschuap, now in this city, has contracted with the Texas Land Company for the introduction of 5,000 Chinese laborers.

A Havana letter says: Henry S. Koppers, a British subject, and for many years connected with the New York Herald bureau, in Havana, was arrested on Wednesday night, and confined in the city prison. The cause of the arrest is unknown, but is supposed to have some relation to his connection with the Herald.

Detectives have arrived here in search of Myers, the absconding defaulter of a branch of the Montreal Bank at Quebec, who has been seen in the city. They are confident of recovering a large portion of the abstracted $200,000.

The base ball match between the Mutuals and Nationals, of Washington, was won by the Mutuals—score, 42 to 16.

Ex-Brigadier General Calvin E. Pratt has been nominated for Judge of the Supreme Court of Kings county.

The store of Guiteman Bros., on Leonard street, was robbed on Sunday of nearly $5,000 worth of shawls and fancy goods.

Several officers were badly beaten in quelling a riot at East New York yesterday. New York roughs were the setters up of the affair, and most of them were badly wounded before it was suppressed.

The steamer City of Boston, from Liverpool arrived to-night.

SAN FRANCISCO.

Odd Fellows Grand Lodge—Masonic Council—Ex-Secretary Seward.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, September 21.—The session of the Grand Lodge to-day was mostly occupied in receiving reports.

Arizona Territory is transferred to the jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of California.

The meeting of citizens and the Grand lodge in the hall of the Chamberg Commerce last evening was a pleasant reunion,

The Grand Lodge of Freemasons of the State of Nevada, held a CounCil in Virginia City, to-day.

Secretary Seward reached Los Angeles to-day en route for San Francisco. His reception was enthusiastic.

United State steamer Mohican returned form Siberia to-night with Profs. Hall and Rogers, of the United States Naval Observatory, Washington, who went north to observe the eclipse. The expedition was a decided failure. The steamer arrived at Ploover Bay July 30th and anchored in Emma Harber. The astronomical party erected an observatory at Wapkum Spit, where Rogers took his station, while Hall proceeded to Band Head, the place selected to observe the eclipse. The weather was favorable until an hour before the contact, when dense clouds obscured the sun, lasting half an hour after egress, then cleared off as before.

Grand Lodge I. O. O. F.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SAN FRANCISCO, September 20.—In the afternoon session of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows the officers' reports were presented and the Standing Committees appointed. The reports exhibit a gratifying condition of affairs, with the exception of the interior Southern States, which is peculiarly bad. The extension of the order in Australia has been accompanied with unexpected success.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

—Twenty-four persons belonging to Rockport, Maine, are thought to have been lost in the recent gale off the coast. Seven bodies have been washed ashore.

—Indications are that the National Musical Convention, to convene in Music Hall, Boston, to-day, will be attended by a large delegation, representing various parts of the country.

—The Pacific Express Company will commence business on the first of October. Wells, Fargo and the Pacific Union Express Company will not carry their fast freight after that date.

—Prince Arthur arrived in Toronto yesterday morning, stopped fifteen minutes, and left for London, where he will arrive at five o'clock. Crowds assembled at the stations on the route, and greeted him with cheers.

—Delegates to the New York Democratic State Convention, to be held at Syracuse, are arriving there freely, and the attendance promises to be large. The indications are that the present Democratic State officers will be renominated.

—The Congregational church in West Concord, N. H., undergoing repairs, was burned yesterday morning. Loss $10,000, insured for $3,000. An insane man named Spear, from Boston, is in custody, suspected of having set fire to the church.

—A dispatch from Norfolk states that three negroes were swallowed up by the conflagration now raging in the Dismal Swamp. They were employed in getting out lumber, and the fire surrounded them while asleep in a hut and burned them to a crisp.

—A game of base ball at Philadelphia Monday afternoon for the benefit of the Avondale sufferers, between the Athletics and Keystones, resulted in favor of the former by a score of thirty-two to twenty-one. The receipts reached nearly six hundred dollars.

—The Arizona Miner publishes a list of Indian outrages. They have recently killed a number of settlers, burned ranches and carried off cattle in the country between Granite, Washington and Prescott. Governor William A. Pile, of this territory, left for Washington yesterday morning.

—The twenty-fourth annual Industrial exhibition of the Province of Ontario, commenced in London, Canada, yesterday and will continue Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. It promises to be the most successful ever held in Canada. Prince Arthur, the Govenor General and Lieutenant Governor of Ontario, visit the grounds to-day.

—The Coroner's jury in the case of the accident at Athens, Pa., censures C. Means, conductor of the way train, for disobedience of orders, and John Rahm, despatcher at Towanda, for running a fast train a few minutes behind a slow one. It is rumored that Means has been arrested, but the officers of the Pa. & N. Y. R. R. are very reticent and apparently not solicitous of giving details.

—Mr. David Green, a respectable citizen of Jones county, N. C., while crossing Chinquepin creek, seven miles from Trenton and less than a mile from his residence, on his way home was fired at by a party of men concealed in the undergrowth. Eleven buckshot took effect, seven in his left side and two in his head. He was taken up shortly after he was shot and carried to a house near by, where at last accounts he was dying.

—A St. Paul dispatch states that after two dry and pleasant days, a heavy thunder storm occurred on Sunday night, putting the grain in shock back to its former wet condition. The river is again rising, and is now sixteen feet above low water mark, a stage unprecedented at this season within the memory of the oldest inhabitant. The booms of Martin & Co. and Keen & Co., at Anoka, have been carried out and millions of feet of logs swept into the stream.

—The New York Times of Tuesday says: We are credibly informed that the new agent of the Methodist Book Concern, Rev. Dr Lanahan, has discovered in thatestablishment great corruption and fraud, involving losses to the amount of several hundred thousand dollars. The subject is now undergoing investigation. As soon as the details can be given to the public without prejudice to any but the culpable parties, will be punished. These frauds is said, have been going on for some eight or nine years, and of course their full extent is not yet ascertained with precision.

—Private advices from Japan say the currency is in a bad way, there being much spurious money in circulation. Paper currency is at a discount, and trade dull. Business is almost at a stand still. The Mikado is still at Yeddo. Great jealousies exist among the Damios, and another outbreak is expected before long. It is said that there was a conspiracy at Kiota a few weeks ago, to put up another Mikado. Their plan was nearly completed when discovered and put down, and was organized by the people who are opposed to the Mikado coming to Yeddo. Japan is by no means settled. Mr. Seward is expected there. Preparations are being made to receive the Duke of Edinburgh. Extraordinary attention will be paid him on all sides, and efforts made to show him as much of Japan as he can well see.

Dr. Cummings and the Pope—Father Hyacinthe and the Holy See—The Byron Scandal—Minister Burlingame and the Chinese Embassy—Opening of the General Sessions of Prussia—The Rumor that Sickles had Withdrawn his Note not Credited—The Pacha of Egypt will not go to Constantinople—Paraguayan Affairs Somewhat Mixed.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, September 21, 1869.

The Pope has sent a communication to Cardinal Manning in reference to the proposal of Dr. Cummings to appear at the Ecumenical Council. The Pope refers Dr. Cummings to the terms of the letter of invitation addressed to the Protestants, and says he will find that it is an invitation not to a discussion, but only to profit by the opportunity to return to the Church. The Pope in conclusion, says there is no room at the council for the defense of errors which have already been condemned.

The Times commenting on the above says the decision of Rome on Dr. Cummings' application is pronounced with unexpected promptitude. The Pope must have acquainted himself with the purport of Dr. Cummings' letter through the newspapers, and replied before its receipt. Dr. Cummings is to be congratulated on the authoritative reply elicited. The Pope speaks plainly. If the doctor had considered the claims of the church, he would have seen that there could be no room for him in the council.

Cyrus Redding, in a letter on the Byron controversy, expresses the belief that the charge made by Mrs. Stowe never existed out of her own brain. He says Lady Byron steadily refused to state the reason of the separation.

Whelply, the defrauder, has been convicted and sentenced to penal servitude for seven years.

EDINBURG, September 21.—Right Hon. Geo. Paston, Lord Justice Clark, of Scotland, has unaccountably disappeared. Nothing has been heard of him since Monday morning, and it is feared that he has been foully dealt with.

The Pall Mall Gazette reviews the idea of a Chinese policy put forth by Mr. Brown, late American Minister to China. It says the sum of his argument is the opening of new markets to Christian traders, when in point of fact there is nothing to show that the difficulties between foreigners and the Chinese are merely questions of interpretation. A truer account would be, that the former forced the Chinese to grant the privileges which the latter, not daring to withdraw, seek to evade. The extortion of such priviliges is a mistake. If intercourse with China is no better than a series of little wars we must be content to measure the right of trade with China by her willingness to trade with us.

SPAIN.

LONDON, September 21.—The Paris correspondent of the Times writes as follows: "The note of the American Minister to the Spanish Government in regard to Cuba varies in its tone and conclusions from the diplomatic communications between the Spanish Minister at Washington and the Government of the United States. The diplomatic experience of Gen. Sickles is limited, and probably insufficient to enable him to rightly estimate the value and effect of his words. Doubtless he is much surprised at the excitement they have created, and it will be difficult for his Government to approve of them."

No pretext exists for recognizing the Cuban insrrrection, which does not hold a single town or position, and owes its prolongation to the action of the climate on its opponents, and the facilities afforded to the insurgents in a thinly peopled country.

The appointment of Gen. Sickles, as Minister to Spain, was greatly criticised, and has not been sanctioned by the Senate. That body will do itself credit by refusing to confirm the appointment of a man who has made so bad a first appearance in diplomacy.

A letter from Madrid to the Standard says: Gen. Sickles, in his note, intimates that the Government at Washington might, under the force of public opinion, be compelled to recognize the Cuban insurgents. He reminds the Spanish Government of the good faith which the United States has hitherto preserved—a respect for international law—and of its unwillingness to embarrass Spain. Altogether the note is not of an alarming nature; but the reticence of the Government in allowing the people to remain in ignorance of its contents, justifies the violent articles which have appeared in the Spanish papers for the past few days.

MADRID, September 21.—The journals of this city are still violent against the presumed unfriendliness of the American government. Some of them urge an immediate declaration of war if the Cubans are recognized as belligerents. The Ministry, after discussing the propriety of returning Mr. Sickles' note unanswered, have decided to postpone their reply until the arrival of General Prim.

The Epoca says Gen. Sickles has withdrawn his note, but the statement is not generally believed.

The republican journals are agitating in favor of a Plebiscitum.

A great popular demonstration in honor of Senor Castellar, the republican orator of the Cortes, was made in Saragossa yesterday.

FRANCE.

PARIS, September 21.—The papers publish a letter from Father Hyacinthe, addressed to the Father of his order at Rome, announcing that he abandons his convent and ceases henceforth to preach in the church of Notre Dame of Paris. As a reason for this step, he declares he cannot obey the orders of the Holy See. He protests before the Pope and Council against the decrees and practices of the Romish Church, which are not in accordance with the principles of christianity.

PARIS, September 21.—The bodies of six murdered persons, a woman and five children, have been found in a field near Paris. As yet the police have discovered no trace of the assassins.

Prince Metternich was received by the Emperor yesterday.

Baron Beust has not yet arrived at Paris.

Minister Burlingame and the Chinese Embassy will set out for Stockholm tomorrow. They propose to return in six weeks, when they go to Berlin.

PARIS, September 21.—The party of the Left will soon send out a manifesto calling for an early convocation of the Senate and Corps Legislatif.

Preparations for the voyage of the Empress to the East have commenced.

The French journals regard the letter of Pere Hyacinthe as a great religious and political event.

La Patrie accuses Prussia of attempting to bring Baden into the Confederation of the North in violation of the stipulations of the Treaty of Prague.

SOUTH AMERICA.

PARIS, September 21.—Reports from Brazilian sources represent that the defeat of Lopez at Ascurra was a complete route, and that the struggle was ended.

La Patrie, on the other hand, has a different account, which, while acknowledging that the Paraguayans have suffered a reverse, maintain that Lopez is still able and determined to continue the war.

Parahons, the Brazilian Commissioner to Paraguay, had returned to Rio Janeiro.

PRUSSIA.

THE HAGUE, September 20.—The Session of States General was opened to-day by a speech from the throne. The foreign relations of the kingdom were reviewed and declared satisfactory. Among other subjects of legislation, a reform for the government of colonies is proposed and the removal of all restrictions upon emigration to Guyana.

ITALY.

FLORENCE, September 21.—It is officially announced that the Committee appointed to investigate the late grist mill riots, have reported in favor of granting amnesty to all implicated.

EGYPT.

ALEXANDRIA, Sept. 21.—It is reported that Ismael Pacha has countermanded the orders he had given to make preparation for his journey to Constantinople

The Alianza Bank will Aid the Government to Suppress the Rebellion—$30,000 already Advanced.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HAVANA, September 21.—The directors of the Alianza Bank have offered aid to the Government for the purpose of carrying on the war, to the amount of the total profits of the bank while the rebellion lasts.

The directors have paid on account of such amount $30,000.

Democrats of New York in Convention.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SYRACUSE, Sept. 21.—Nearly all the delegates of the Democratic State Convention are in the city. It is said Horatio Seymour will not take part in the proceedings.

General Slocum is mentioned for temporary President, and Lieutenant Governor Besch, will be permanent President. The platform will be rather consevative, but it will not go as far as Ohio Democratic platform, nor will it be a copy of the Masachusetts Democracy. Its leading points will be a demand for the restoration of the Southern States, general amnesty, a fulfilment of the obligations of the contracts with regard to Government bonds, opposition to the proposed fifteenth amendment, opposition to the amended State Constitution, excepting the judiciary. There is a general good feeling among the delegates with a larger share of confidence than has been witnessed at a Democratic Convention for years.

Maine Election.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

AUGUSTA, ME., September 21.—The entire vote of this State is received, except thirty-seven small towns and plantations. Chamberlain received 50,901, Smith 38,277, and Hichborn 4,642. The Senate stands twenty-eight Republicans to three Democrats, a Democratic gain of one. The House one hundred and thirteen Republicans to thirty-four Democrats; four districts to hear from. Last year the House stood, Republicans one hundred and twenty-one, Democrats thirty.

Ruffianism in Texas.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MEMPHIS, Sept. 21.—The Brownsville Bee, of Saturday, says: "For some time a band of ruffians in disguise have infested the neighborhood of Milan, disturbing and abusing innocent negroes, annoying and molesting white people, and in one instance they drove off a number of negroes employed on the Memphis and Louisville Railroad, besides other villainous atrocities. The Bee calls upon them to burn their masks and go to work like honest men, or a speedy reckoning awaits them

Gen. Grant in Wheeling—The City in Holiday Attire—Unbounded Enthusiasm.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WHEELING, W. VA., Sept. 21.—The President and family arrived here this afternoon by carriages from Washington, Pa.

The Mayor, accompanied by prominent citizens, met the party five miles east of here, on the National road, and escorted them to the city.

The procession moved down Main street, preceded by a band of music, to the Grant House, where the President will be entertained.

Governor Stevenson, and the heads of departments, called upon the President and paid their respects.

The city is in holiday attire; flags and streamers are displayed from every house along the line of travel, and the streets in the neighborhood of the hotel are thronged with people.

Installation of Gov. Walker.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

RICHMOND, September 21.—Governor Walker was installed as Provisional Governor at the gubernatorial mansion today at noon, Gen. Canby being present.

Governor Wells turned over the office to the new incumbent, who took the ironclad and other oaths of office.

There were no ceremonies and no demonstration except the gathering of a large crowd of white and colored people to congratulate the new Governor, who shook hands with them.

Musical Convention.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

LEAVENWORTH, September 21.—The Musical Convention which has been in session in this city for the past week, under the supervision of Professor Perkins, of Boston, closed this evening with a grand concert. The Convention has been a brilliant success, and the grandest affair in the line of music, ever undertaken in the west.

Election in New Mexico—Indian Outrages.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

OMAHA, September 21.—Returns from nearly all the counties in New Mexico give Chaurz, Republican delegate to Congress 2,500 to 3,900 majority.

The Indians have been committing great outrages in New Mexico and Arizona lately.

Gov. Pyle is on his way to Washington.

Break on the Erie Canal.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SYRACUSE, September 21.—A serious break occurred this morning on the Erie canal, at Pool's Brook, near Kirkville. About one hundred feet of the embankment was carried out. The flood covered the Central Railroad track and temporarily stopped travel. The track is now in use. It will require several days to repair the break.

Good Templars in Convention.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ROCHESTER, N. Y., September 21.—The Grand Lodge of Good Templars of this State assembled in Corinthian Hall to-day. About eight hundred delegates are in attendance. The sessions will occupy three days. A public meeting will be held this evening when several addresses will be delivered.

—Col. J. W. Powell, the Colorado river explorer, returned to Chicago on Monday, having successfully traversed the entire Grand Canon to Green river, where the Colorado debouches into the open plain in the territory of Arizona. From the point where Col. Powell's last letter was written, the expedition descended the river about four hundred miles between walls almost vertical, ranging from five hundred to one thousand five hundred feet in height. The exterior rim of the Canon being from two thousand five hundred to four thousand feet above the bed of the river, more than two hundred waterfalls and cascades, emptying themselves over the walls of the Canon into the main river, were seen in the distance, presenting almost every variety of natural scenery. The geological formation of the Canon consists principally of limestone and sandstone. Granite was found only at three places and in limited amount. No discoveries of precious metals were made, and no indications of gold or silver were found in the bed of the river. One section of the Canon was found to consist of very fine and beautifully polished marble, which is at present entirely inaccessible. The country traversed is barren beyond description, and is pronounced by Col. Powell not susceptible of cultivation, even by irrigation.

—In the case of Frank Mooney against the owners of the steamer Flirt, at St. Louis, the depositions of Garrett Boley, the mate, and others, were taken on Monday. Boley states that Mooney refused to pay out the line when ordered, and picked up the lead line in his hand. He did not fire the pistol, but it went off without being cocked while he was holding it towards Mooney at an upward angle of four degrees. He does not know where the ball went, but he saw blood. He admitted the beating, but did not strike Mooney with the lead. He asked Mooney to come aboard the boat when she was ready to start, but he refused. An assistant pilot testified that ten or twenty minutes after the boat landed, Mooney went about five hundred yards from the boat, took off all his clothing except his boots and hat, and stood there till the boat left.

—The first appointment made by Gov. Walker, of Virginia, was Capt. Wm. E. Cameron, editor of the Petersburg Index, as his Secretary. Capt. Camerom was an officer in the Confederate army and, one of the first and most determined supporters of the Walker Republican ticket in the late campaign.

—The strike among the miners at Port Henry, N. Y., still continues. Frequent attacks are being made upon workmen employed on the Erie bed railroad. Several men have been severely beaten by the mob for working against orders. Danger of life and property is imminent.

—In the Jefferson City (La,) Common Council, Tuesday night, articles of impeachment were preferred against Mayor Leech for alleged peculation. The Mayor has been suspended. The trial commences to-day.

—At Cincinnati, yesterday, the weather was cloudy, with a slight shower of rain in the afternoon. Thermometer 75 at six o'clock in the evening.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

MY LITTLE WIFE.

The following exquisite love story is by a poet celebrated in the July number of Blackwood—David Wingate, a collier from his ninth year:

My little wife, often round the church hill,
Sweet little, dear little, neat-footed Jane,
Walked slowly, and lonely, and thoughtful, until
The afternoon bell chimed its call o'er the plain;
And nothing seemed sweeter
To me than to meet her,
And tell her what weather 't was likely to be,
My heart the while glowing,
The selfish wish growing,
That all her affections were centered in me.

My little wife once ('tis strange, 'tis true),
Sweet little, dear little love-troubled Jane,
So deeply absorbed in her day dreaming grew,
The bell chimed and ceased, though she heard not its strain;
And I, walking near her
(May love ever cheer her
Who thinks all such wanderings of sin void and free,)
Strove hard to persuade her
That He who had made her
Had destined her heart-love for no one but me.

My little wife—well, perhaps this was wrong—
Sweet little, dear little, warm-hearted Jane,
Sot on the hill-sidetill her shadow grew long,
Nor tired of the preacher that thus could detain.
I argued so neatly,
And proved so completely,
That none but poor Andrew her husband could be,
She smiled when I blessed her,
And blushed when I kissed her,
And owned that she loved and would wed none but me.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

THE Boston tailors threaten a strike.

NEW HAVEN has a machine that cuts 100,000 slate pencils a day.

BROOKLYN erected $10,000,000 worth of buildings in the past year.

DEAD TREES have been set on fire by the rays of the sun in Georgia.

THE drought in Virginia has induced many negroes to emigrate to Tennessee.

THE gross receipts of street railroads in Cleveland during August were $23,301.

HARVARD commenced the collegiate year of 1869-70 with 577 under-graduates.

THE valuable library of Rev. Dr. Sears, late President of Brown University, is to be sold at auction in Boston.

SUREMAN, a colored man, is on trial at Washington, for abstracting $12,000 in unsigned notes from the Treasury.

A GOVERNMENT gauger and eight of his employes have been arrested for stealing brandy while engaged in sampling part of a cargo in New York city.

THE San Antonio (Texas) Herald appeals to the cotton manufacturers of the world to offer a reward of $100,000 for the discovery of some means of destroying the cotton worm.

THE State Record, printed at Topeka, Kansas, says the State of Kansas is "growing so fast" that a map three months old is the most unsatisfactory thing they have to deal with.

THE Brooklyn Mercantile library has on its list 23,000 books. The membership is about 2,000. Thirteen thousand dollars are to be expended annually in the purchase of new volumes.

IN a Georgia town the hogs have learned that when a steamer touches at the wharf, corn and other grain is usually scattered about. Consequently, the sound of a steamboat whistle brings the entire hog population to the landing.

IT is reported from a New York inebriate asylum that about two-thirds of the cases of confirmed habitual drunkenness are the results of constitutional tendency. The other third are the results of habits acquired in the social circle, and are easily cured.

A GENTLEMAN in Macon, Ga., predicts that cotton will go down to fifteen cents during the winter and then rise to thirty-five in the spring, but the Telegraph of that city tells him that the crop is too short and the demand too eager for such fluctuations.

A CALL is published for a People's Convention in St. Paul, Minn., on Thursday, Oct. 7, to nominate State Officers, "by the election of whom the people may rebuke the abuses of party management and reform the administration of the the State affairs."

THE Prohibitory law went into force in Massachusetts on the 1st of July last. Since that time the State Police have instituted 1,808 prosecutions, including seizures. The amount of fines paid up during the present year on the prosecutions of the State Police is $74,703,

A NEW style of conducting funerals is coming into vogue in Hartford, Conn. Bearers, selected from among the friends of the deceased, walk behind the remains, which are carried by persons employed by the undertaker in charge, the bearers having nothing to do with handling the coffin.

MARGARET CONNOLLY has been sentenced to the State prison for five years, for attempting to murder police officer Kearney in New York city. As the prisoner was leaving the court room, she turned to officer Kearney and swore she would take his life as soon as released from prison.

THE Ohio State Temperance Alliance has determined to raise $20,000, and has assessed the several counties in the State their proportions of the amount. This is not the organization which put the State ticket in nomination. The friends of temperance as a moral reform movement, disassociated from politics, are called upon to contribute.

A BLOCK of buildings in Chicago, belonging to Elisha Sprague, who was so terribly afflicted with erysiplace, was sold last week for the purpose of raising funds to soothe the lacerated feelings of Amanda Craig, who got the $100,000 verdict for breach of promise. The block was worth $40,000, brought $20,000, and Elisha can redeem it within fifteen months from the day of sale.

CHICAGO sent out on Thursday of last week its largest mail by a single train, on the Iowa division of the Northwestern Railroad. It consisted of fifty-nine paper bags, and five large lock pouches, destined for California, and fifty-seven paper bags and thirteen lock pouches of Chicago mail matter—making a total of one hundred and twenty-eight sacks of mail matter, fifteen thousand pounds in weight.

A CORRESPONDENT of the New York Times, writing from Knoxville, Tenn., says: Browlow has sold out his interest in the Whig, and, contrary to his published assurance that it passed into good Republican hands, its new editor was one of the most intolerant and violent Secessionists of this State. He is a minister of the Gospel, but will make an enterprising editor. I make this statement to show where Brownlow is drifting."

AN autograph letter of Humboldt was sold in St. Louis a few days since to a citizen for $25. The letter was written a short time before the great naturalist's death, and was addressed to Prof. Rossmaszler of Leipsic, the author of works on the fauna and moluscs of the waters of Europe. The widow of Prof. Rossmaszler now resides at Quincy, Ill., and five of these autograph letters were entrusted to a gentleman to dispose of for the benefit of the owner.

ONE CAPT. HERBERT won a remarkable law-suit in Adair county, Iowa, the other day—a suit conducted on both sides of the North river. The plaintiff and his lawyer lived on one side of the river and the defendant, his lawyer and the magistrate on the other. The parties met on either bank of the stream, which was too high to be crossed. The "court" took his seat on a damp log and ordered the trial to proceed. For one hour and a half the attorneys slung law and logic across a hundred feet of September freshet, at the expiration of which period the "court" mounted a stump, and lifting up his voice to a frightful pitch, hurled his decision across the stream.

THE Board of Water Commissioners of St. Louis have matured a plan for a "stand-pipe" one hundred and eighty feet high, to be erected at the intersection of important thoroughfares, about midway between the reservoir and the forcing engines,) the line of mains being five miles long,) so constructed as to receive the pulsating tide of water which, rising to a certain height in the pipe, is forced onward again by its own gravity, having the same effect as an air chamber. It is proposed to place a tower on the pipe, and to make it an ornament, inasmuch as it will overtop the highest spire in the city, thus forming a conspicuous land-mark. It will be built of brick, with a spiral staircase ascending to the top between the outer and inner walls.

ON Monday while some employes of the Buffalo water department were attempting to connect a twenty-four inch pumping main with a supply pipe, a six inch hole having been cut in the latter, it was discovered that the stop valve between the opening and the reservoir did not close tight enough, and an effort being made to repair it, it gave way entirely, and in a moment the hole in the discharge main was spurting a powerful stream into the ditch prepared to receive the new pipe. The reservoir was full at the time, and all other efforts failing to check the flow in order to allow the vent to be stopped, it was determined to draw off the water from one of the divisions of the reservoir. At sunset Monday evening the prospects were that the damage would not be repaired for several days.

ST. LOUIS is having a lively time with suits for damages. The Democrat says "that since John Blake received $6,500 damages from the city for falling into a hole at the Convent Market, every man who knocks off his big toe nail or sprains his ankle by stumbling over a pile of bricks or into a sewer excavation, thinks he can secure a competency for life by suing the city, and there are lawyers enough ready to undertake their cases." A few days since a Mr. Berthold brought suit for $20,000 because his horse backed into a water pipe excavation and hurt his owner's legs, half a dozen others have brought suits for false imprisonment, next a Mr. Meyer claims $20,000 damages for falling into a hole in a street, and finally Mr. J. C. Fargo, treasurer of the American Express Co., asks $3,000 damages for the pulling down of a building belonging to the company, the walls of which had been reported to the Mayor to be in an unsafe condition.

STATE ITEMS.

THE deaths in Philadelphia last week were one hundred and fifty-two.

THE proposition to change the county seat of Tioga county is gaining favor.

BEAVER citizens are considering the propriety of encouraging the project for a railroad through that county.

SCARLET FEVER prevails to a considerable extent in Philadelphia. Eleven children died there by it last week.

THE court and bar in Pottsville contributed $225 for the relief of the Avondale sufferers, and the county officers $20 additional.

ON Saturday last Rev. Benjaman Dorr, D. D., Rector of Christ Church, died at his residence in Germantown, of congestion of the brain.

J. T. BOYD, ESQ., of Beaver, who resides near where Fort McIntosh stood, last week picked up an officer's brass button, bearing date of 1770.

MICHAEL KING and wife, charged with causing the death of a boy by ill treatment, were acquitted at the August term of the Tioga county court.

THE annual meeting of the surviving members of the "Roundheads" (100th Regiment Penna. Vols.) took place at New Brighton on the 14th.

THE shop of Mr. Jacob Bennett, diamond setter, Philadelphia, was visited on Friday of last week by an operator, who stole nearly three thousand dollars' worth of diamonds.

THE Coroner's jury in the case of Col. Seibert, at Philadelphia, found that he came to his death by violence (blows on the head) at the hands of Phillip Flanagan, on the evening of the 12th of September, inst.

IT IS stated that Joseph A. Wray, who removed west from New Brighton a few years ago, and now residing at Allen Station, Mo., had both his legs cut off while operating a mowing machine on his farm. No further particulars are given.

THE editor of the Miners' Journal has been shown a peach measuring nine and a half inches in circumference and weighing half a pound, the last one on a tree (which had grown larger ones) on the premises of Mrs. Hough, in Pottsville.

MAYOR FOX, of Philadelphia, has offered a reward of five hundred dollars for the arrest of Hugh Maher or Marra, Niel McLaughlin and James Dougherty, who are believed to have been concerned in the murderous assault upon Revenue Detective Brooks.

MR. BROOKS, the Philadelphia revenue detective who was murderously assailed a short time since, is getting so much better that his case will probably be immortalized in medical records as an exceptional and very remarkable illustration of the tenacity of nature in a sound constitution.

THE death of a Mr. Lynch, one of the most prominent citizens of Montgomery county, is announced. His buggy was seen driverless, jogging gently along the road, and upon the vehicle being overtaken he was lying dead in the bottom of it. He had expired from heart disease. His age was sixty-two years.

AT a meeting of citizens of Philadelphia on Saturday it was resolved to petition Council to take prompt and immediate action for relief from the present inconvenience arising from a deficient supply of water, and for the erection of a reservoir of sufficient elevation and suitable location to meet future demands.

THREE miners, Thomas Pilling, Patrick Pilling and Edward Giblen, have been held to bail at Pottsville, on a charge of conspiracy to stop the work at St. Clair colliery. Giblen had been discharged for not finishing his day's labor, whereupon notice was given that no more work would be done at the colliery until he was reinstated.

RECENTLY W. H. Henry, of Coatsville, Chester county, while laboring under the effects of liquor, and about retiring for the night, took a bottle of a solution of corrosive sublimate and drank freely therefrom, under the idea that it would benefit him, having a heavy cold and being very hoarse. The bottle was taken from him by his sister, who informed him he had taken poison. He became alarmed and ran to a drug store. Physicians did all in their power, but it was of no avail. He died during the night.

A CASE of suffocation is the latest Philadelphia horror. Three persons, Wm. Connerty and wife, and a widow Maginn, occupying one bed in an apartment of a dilapidated dwelling in Wood street, were found on Sunday forenoon to all appearances suffocated with coal gas. Closer examination revealed the fact that the two women were dead, and the man nearly so. The window of the room was closed, the fire still burning, and the presence of gas plainly discernable. The victims were in very poor circumstances, all the surroundings indicating the most abject poverty. The man, sixty years of age, was a fruit peddler.

ON Sunday morning, the express train on the Pennsylvania and New York Railroad, bound north, collided with a way train at Athens, Bradford county. One of the passengers, Mr. William Mabee, of Towanda, was instantly killed, and another, Nelson W. Ackley, Republican candidate for Assembly from that district, so badly injured that he soon died. Mrs. Zelinda Spalding, of Milan, and George Beers, fireman of the express, were seriously wounded. The way engine had stopped to take water, and owing to a dense fog the engineer of the express train was unable to see the flag sent back to notify him of the danger ahead.

GARIBALDI says: "I do not suffer so much, but I feel I am growing old. I am a weather-beaten hulk, which has made many a voyage; a plank is at one time wanting, at another a nail—always something. But an earnest will supplies all deficiencies, and when the country may need the last timber of the old barge, I shall willingly make the sacrifice.

ARCHIBALD W. OXENDINE, a venerable centenarian, died on the 3d inst. near the Meramee Iron Works, Phelps county, Mo. The deceased was born on Pedee river, South Carolina, August 26, 1759, and was consequently over a hundred and ten years of age at the time of his death. He served throughout the war of the revolution as one of "Marion's Men," and for over forty years was a minister of the Baptist denomination.

NATHANIEL BARNEY, one of the old time abolitionists, who died lately at Nantucket, Mass., was once a stockholder in the New Bedford railroad, and as such he refused for several years his share of the dividends, as long as the colored man was not allowed his equal rights as a passenger in the cars; and when at last the prejudice gave way, he gave the accumulated dividends to his friend, William Lloyd Garrison, for the anti slavery cause.

THE Right Rev. Henry Philpots, D. D., Bishop of Exoter, died on Saturday last, at his Episcopal palace, at the advanced age of ninety-one years. He had filled many positions in the Church, made some valuable contributions to literature, and taken a considerable part in public affairs in the House of Lords. His health had been failing for several months, and from his great age his death was to have been expected at any moment, but his intellectual faculties were retained in remarkable vigor up to his last illness.

CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL private diseases. Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.
A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.
It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.
The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.
The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. Sundays 12 M. to 2 P. M. Office, No. 9 WILLIS STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh, Pa

WOOL MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, Sept. 21, 1869.

The wool market for the past week or ten days has been dull, with a disposition on the part of buyers to stop off their purchases in the country until wool growers yield somewhat in their domands. There has been nothing this season, and there is not now anything to warrant over 45 cents for fine wools in good condition, nothing in the state o the Eastern wool markets, or woolen goods market to afford any margin for handling wools at a higher price than 45cents in the country. Many growers in the fine wool sections are holding the wools yet at 50 cents, hoping soon to realize this price. Whilst some clips may be cheaper at 50 cents than others at 45, yet we believe that the bulk of the wools now held at 50 cents, are dear enough at 45, and we see no prospect at present of their being worth more than 45 in the country.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point with scant 30 inches in the channel. Weather yesterday was again oppressively hot, mercury being up to 84 in the shade; last evening the sky was overcast and there was every indication of rain, but it has threatened rain nearly every day for a week past.

There has been no arrivals since the date of our last report and the Julia No. 2 for Zanesville, was the only departure.

The Belle wes due here from Parkersburg last night, and if she gets in, will doubtless depart again to day as usual.

The Sallie, from St. Louis, is due here to-day, but it is possible she will not venture above Wheeling, in consequence of low water, and if so, she will reship by rail.

The Bellevernon, Capt. J. J. Darragh Jr., is announced for New Orleans, to leave on the first rise of water.

—The R. C. Gray, arrived at Cincinnati on Sunday with about 400 tons.

—The Glendale, Pittsburgh to St. Louis, passed Evansville on Saturday.

—The Julia A. Rudolph left Cincinnati on Sunday for New Orleans, heavily loaded.

—Geo. Bennett, the oldest journalist in Cincinnati, died Saturday morning, aged 55 years. He had been a reporter for the Enquirer twenty-seven years, and at one time conducted the river department of that paper.

—Capt. Frank Stein late of Clifton, will probably assume command of the Wauanita, now loading at Cincinnati for Memphis, and Capt. J. D. Conway, late in the bakery business here, will have charge of the office.

—The Chattanooga Enterprise says: "As the rainy season has set in, the Tennessee will soon be navigable for our large steamers. We anticipate a big business in the produce line." The Alert and the Minnie are plying the river above that point.

—The Cincinnati Gazette of Monday says: An owner in the St. Charles desires to dispose of his interest in the boat, and she will, therefore, be sold at auction on the 30th inst. The other owners may buy her in, and put her in the Pittsburg trade, with Capt. C. A. Drayo in command.

—Capt. John Woodburn, has constructed some 15 steamers, including the Thos. P. Ray, Arabian, Jos. H. Conn, Red Wing, Undine, Tahlequah, Gen. Grant, J. S. Hall, Pilgrim, W. A. Caldwell, Ft. Gibson, Dardanelle, Mary Boyd, R. P. Walt, besides several other steamers in which he has been interested and built in connection with his brother.

—Several bridges are soon to be built over the upper waters of the Mississippi—one at Hastings, one at Winona, and probably one at La Crosse, one at Prairie du Chien, and one at Dubuque, to accommodate the railroads which the river now cuts in two. It is highly important that the construction of these bridges, as to height and width of span, should be regulated by some rule which will render them as little obstructive to navigation as possible.

—The Ida Rees No. 2, broke her shaft on the Upper Missouri at Fort Thompson, between Sully and Randall. The river was low, and she had been previously obliged to leave part of her cargo 57 miles above Fort Randall. After the accident, she had been compelled to leave the balance at the place of the accident. Capt. Horn intended to splice the shaft with timber, and work easily down the river to St. Louis, the nearest place where it can be repaired.

MISCELLANEOUS.

SECURITY AND COMFORT for the traveling community.

J. B. HARRIS
Safety Fire Jacket, Car Heater and MODERATOR.

For Smoke and Hot Air Flues, dispensing with the use of stoves and fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached. Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket, which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended.

It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto, I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c. Wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired, I will send on application right to manufacture or use the above invention. Also Territorial rights to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges either by State or county.

FROM TO-MORROW onward until the 8th of next month, Governor GEARY will devote his attention almost entirely to the canvass in the western counties of the State.

SPAIN sends large reinforcements of her troops to Cuba, by way of response to the little "suggestions" of our Minister at Madrid. American diplomacy at the Escarial is not yet to be complimented upon its achievements!

ALLEGHENY COUNTY is awake! Our Republican friends here understand themselves, and appreciate the responsibilities of the hour. Our voters will attend at the October polls with their usual punctuality, and in their usual force. We feel quite safe in the prediction that they will count out as good an average for Allegheny, in comparison with the last Presidential vote, as in any other county of Pennsylvania. Remember that!

THE CUBAN INSURRECTION will be permitted to worry itself through, to whatever issue fate may reserve for it. The American government will avoid any intervention which could embroil us on either side, and the two leading maritime powers of Europe, England and France, will follow our example. Least of all, do the latter propose to inflame American sympathies, by any overt demonstrations to sustain the Spanish authority. They are too wise to fall into that trap.

WE HAVE already announced that the Democratic City Ticket for Philadelphia, which was first nominated, created so much dissatisfaction among reputable members of the party, that all the candidates were constrained to withdraw. A fresh list of candidates was brought out; but these seem to be no more acceptable than the others. Three of the Democratic Sunday papers of Philadelphia opened simultaneously upon the new candidates, and this appears to be only the preliminary display of the internal opposition to be encountered.

THE SELECT BRANCH of the City Councils did not concur in the action of the lower body in granting to the California Pioneers the hospitalities of the city, being restrained from so doing by the impoverished condition of the finances of our municipality. The Pioneers will come nevertheless, and should receive some welcome from our people. Will not our manufacturers and merchants themselves see to it that they are hospitably entertained? Let our energetic citizens set about to at once prepare for their reception in a fitting and becoming manner, for we cannot afford to give them the "dry shoulder" on their advent among us. Who will move? It will certainly be damaging to our own interests to permit our visitors to enter and depart from our city without any sign of recognition or welcome.

"POLITICAL affairs in Cincinnati are pretty much mixed. The sorehead Republicans and the Democrats united on a county ticket, otherwise People's, in opposition to the regular Republican nominations. Frederick Hassaurek, editor of the Volksblatt, a Republican politician of note, supports the new movement on the ground that it is in the interest of reform in politics. The principal idea of the new party is to replace enormous fees of county officials with reasonable salaries, and let the surplus go into the Treasury. Not a bad notion certainly; but still it was the leading resolution in the Republican Convention in Cincinnati. Any how, no matter by what party advanced, it 'would pay' in Allegheny county."—Commercial.

On several occasions, during the last six months, we have called attention to the disorganising tendencies of our neighbor, and, in some quarters, have been thought uncharitable. The deliberate suggestion, copied above, ought to leave no doubt in the mind of any Republican as to what that neighbor would do, if it could.

THE CONTRAST.

Eight years of Republican rule (Nov. 30, 1860, to Nov. 30, 1868) reduced our State debt $5,170,061.16, paid war-expenses, during the rebellion, to the amount of $5,087,056.76 more, and, in the last three years of the eight, took off $4,240,670.99 of real and personal taxation—a total of fourteen and a half millions of dollars paid off from our debts, or saved from our resources.

Three years of Democratic rule (June '58 to Jan. '61) sold the public works, received a million and a half of dollars in those real and personal taxes, and yet increased the public debt $1,092,422.41.

These figures are officially correct and speak for themselves.

THE SECURITY OF MINERS.

Notwithstanding the existence, for years past, of schools of mining, in the German States, the scientific instruction thus afforded has not sufficed to extinguish the risks of calamity altogether. The school at Freiberg, in Saxony, is one of the most thorough in its curriculum, most largely attended, and is regarded as of the highest repute upon the Continent. Yet the recent wholesale destruction of life, in the colleries near Dresden, presents a sad commentary upon the deficiencies of the practical education which the mining-schools afford, or must be accepted as proving that this instruction is not yet universally popularized.

It would be folly to deny that science has, on the whole, contributed vastly to the personal security of miners in their underground labor, but it has not succeeded, and perhaps never will, in suppressing altogether the temptations which constantly impel the operatives to take the risk of disregarding its teachings. For example, every moderately intelligent miner knows that the danger of an explosion of the fire-damp which he encounters is reduced to its minimum by the proper use of the Davy lamp, which is so constructed that the workman is faithfully warned of the existence of the peril which it protects him from. Yet mining experience abounds with cases where the most fearful disasters have been directly traceable to the recklessness of the operative in uncovering his light, that he may the clearer see his work. Continued impunity encourages him until, at last, a blow of his pick releases the deadly gas from its confinement, the fire touches it, and death flashes through every avenue and chamber of the pit.

For such recklessness, no extent of scientific instruction can supply a reliable remedy. The legislative authority only can supply the police-restrictions which may yield a more complete protection. These restrictions should be so framed as to reach the individual operative as well as the proprietary which employs him, since by far the largest percentage of underground casualties is to be attributed to direct causes for which the former have been alone responsible.

The Prussian laws insist on the employment of all the precautions which science has yet discovered for the protection of miners, and yet nearly three hundred lives were lost in their collieries in the single year 1867. It is admitted that, but for the use of these precautions, the casualty lists would be very much larger. The Prussian system of compulsory insurance for the workmen has a direct and potent influence in diminishing the hazards of under-ground life, but even that fails of a complete restraint upon individual recklessness.

Our Legislature, at its next session, is expected to consider the whole subject carefully, and to provide effective regulations for the business of mining. We trust that this legislation may not be limited by the experience of other countries, but that it shall successfully meet and provide for contingencies and hazards which no laws, at home or abroad, seem yet to have touched.

CHRONIC GRUMBLERS AT POLITICS.

The speech recently uttered by Prince NAPOLEON in the Corps Legislatif of France has resounded throughout the civilized world, thrilling and reassuring the friends of representative government everywhere. Yet he gave utterance to no opinion or sentiment of superior significance and force to this one, "that the duty of every good citizen requires him to take an interest in politics; indifference in such matters being dangerous to the country."

In the United States it has, unfortunately, become common for large classes of citizens who enjoy high social rank and claim exalted moral character, to sneer at politics and politicians, as necessarily degraded and degrading. These people would resent as a deep affront the imputation of being politicians, and would feel a need for washing their hands thoroughly if they had taken an active and vigorous part in any movement or transaction distinctively political. With them the word politician is synonymous with scoundrel, and politics with chicanery and deceit.

It must be confessed that some politicians are not stainless, and that politics, applying to all sorts of men and women, and in all conditions of life, has certain repulsive aspects. But, pray, are all reputed saints entirely amiable and enchanting, either in themselves or in the relations which they sustain to the masses of mankind? Are there no "black sheep" among merchants, manufacturers, bankers, lawyers, doctors and clergymen? Many such, first or last, fall into the clutches of the law, and many clearly ought to who do not, but manage by wit or guile to escape.

Among the men of this nation who properly repute themselves to be politicians, and who are necessarily so reputed by all others, are thousands and tens of thousands who have no superiors either as respects moral character, or natural endowments, or range and exactness of culture. Take these men out of the community, and the average of morals, intellect and learning would be largely and lamentably diminished. Group the names that are illustrious in the political annals of the republic, and you have an array that cannot be surpassed, even if it can be matched, for brilliancy and worth, in any other department of activity.

The reason is obvious. Politics being the science of government, touches next to religion, the highest possible human interests, and this perpetually, and in a way to insure contentment or to entail unspeakable misery. This science of politics is at once intricate and fascinating. Suited to men of the largest grasp of mental powers, it attracts them by a species of magnetism too potent to be resisted. That there are pettifoggers among lawyers, quacks among doctors, smatterers among scholars, bigots and hypocrites among clergymen, bummers along with armies, the whole world knows full well; and these will ever be so long as human nature remains what it is. So there are demagogues and pretenders among politicians.

But, this is not the main point we had in view when we set out, which was to approve and enforce the doctrine of Prince NAPOLEON that every citizen ought to be a politician, and that for any man to fail therein is of dangerous tendency to the nation. The danger to the State does not proceed so much from the bad or incompetent men who push themselves into the management of politics, as from men whose morals are pure and whose abilities are unquestionable, but who refuse to discharge the political duties which devolve on them as members of society. It is not the self-assertion of the profligate, so much as the remissness of the other sort, that degenerates practical politics. Do not the declaimers against politics and politicians comprehend that a sin of omission is just as much a sin as one of commission? If they do not, they had better brush up their ethical comprehensions. Nay, it happens not untrequently that a duty omitted entails as great disasters as any crime actually consummated. The greater part of the grumblers against politicians are in this very dilemma; their refusal to do their own manifest duty, furnishes the men of whom they complain the opportunities whereby they thrive. Who, then, are chiefly responsible? If a man's field is destroyed, will he discriminate between the offender who let down the bars and the other offender who drove the cattle in? We trow not.

There are many men here in Allegheny county, as everywhere else, who are constantly declaiming against parties and grumbling about politicians; but they do literally nothing to make the case better. They cast off and contemn the responsibilities which nature and the laws lay upon their shoulders, and then set up continuous howls about the way in which their neighbors dispose of their respective shares of these same duties. Especially is this true as to local or municipal affairs. Fall upon a chronic grumbler, and you encounter ordinarily a man who has done, and means to do, nothing towards correcting whatever disorders may exist. He has his own views of what ought and what ought not to be done, and these are so sharply defined in his mind as not to admit of contradiction from any of his peers; but he will put forth no suitable efforts to have his own conceptions carried out by those who occupy positions of legal authority. There is decidedly too much of this; and the sooner every such citizen reaches the conclusion that he has something to do of more consequence than growling, both in municipal and general politics, the better it will be for all concerned. If a people can be named who have suffered the loss of liberty or any minor evils through the exertions of small and debasing politicians, we are confident that many have been vitally injured by the sickly sentimentality of classes of population too fastidious to perform the rough work inevitable in this world, and who preferred the immaculate whiteness and delicacy of their hands to a grand cause energetically pushed, and the highest results heroically achieved.

THE Rock Island (Ill.) Union says a Mrs. Heflin, residing in that county, gave birth to six children, three boys and three girls, on the evening of the 7th inst. The mother and children at last accounts were doing well, and the father is said to be "perfectly delighted."

MINOR TOPICS.

VERY FEW of the publications of the past year have been more popular than the ballads of Hans Breitmann. No Maccaronic author has ever, to our knowledge, approached Leland in ability to mix the German and English languages so naturally, and at the same time to give with such accuracy the broken fragments of both. According to our own, as well as the popular judgment, Hans Breitmann is one of the funniest jolliest, most laughable creations of the literature of the present decade, full of such gems as none but rare wit could conceive. The critic of Harper's Magazine disagrees entirely with this, and unable to appreciate the admirability of the broken English used, ranks him in the list of mis-spellers below Artemus Ward and Petroleum V. Nasby. This, when there is not a word in the book mis-spelled, any more than there is in the Scotch poems of Burns'; but there is a rough beauty in the rich dialects of a country, which it would be impossible for a cockney to enjoy. This same critic says: "In Hans Breitmann there is nothing funny but the grotesque dress. Take away his pipe and his lager beer, and he is as stupid a dolt as you can find of a Sunday afternoon in any beer garden." The man who wrote that is evidently a Sabbatarian, who is not to be found in a beer garden on a Sunday afternoon. When "Hans Breitmann solves the infinite as one eternal spree," it is just as funny as if it still wore its German trimmings, but it is not so appropriate to the character, just as in some of Burns' poems, the fun remains if the poem is stripped of its broad Scotch, but the identity of it is quite lost. Some months ago the two publishing houses of Harper's and Lippincott's, Breitmann's former publisher, had a quarrel of the "heftiest" sort. Can it be that that is the reason for the apparently unaccountable lack of appreciation in an ordinarily just critic?

THE light wine question is getting to be of more and more importance every year. The yield of grapes this year in California and several others of the wine growing districts is very much larger than ever before. Every year large tracts of suitable lands are planted with grapes for the first time, and as but few vineyards which have once produced are ever abandoned, before long the native wine party will be a prominent and respectable opponent to both the whisky and the total abstinence rings. Of the many unprejudiced or intelligent persons who have examined into this question abroad we have yet to hear of the first one who does not report that where wine is grown in such quantities as to render it possible for the people to procure a pure article for a small price, intoxication is rarer than it is common in this country or in England. Dr. Holland to be sure, has written a series of letters containing statements exactly contrary to this, but he must have traveled with his eyes so closed that nothing but a case of drunkeness would open them; for we ourselves, without having paid particular attention to this question, are able to contradict almost every one of his assertions from personal observation. But a few years, however, will have elapsed before we shall be able to study this important question without going abroad.

THE summer is about over, the people who were out of town are in again, the warm weather of September has lasted nearly its accustomed time, and the equinoctial storm is anxiously looked for. We hope that the complaints of hard times are over too. These complaints have been wide-spread, but everything seems to show that they have not been justifiable. In our own experience we have never before known so many of our citizens to spend a portion of the summer away from home and business, nor have we ever before known of so large a proportion of that number taking the expensive trip to Europe. From New York and Baltimore a larger number of first class passages have been taken to Europe this year than in any before, and as the cry of hard times has found its echo in those cities too, we may well consider whether this constantly increasing journeying to Europe and the consequent increase of purchases by private parties there, has not something to do with it? But then again, on the other hand, if times are hard, how is it that the number of travelers is so much larger than usual? It is a question that has two distinct sides, and admits of two antagonistic answers.

FEW MEN have been so unfortunate as Lord Byron. During his life time he was pressed by enemies and critics, and twice at least since his death he has been exhumed, merely to be used as a target at which literary sharp-shooters could practice with their poisoned arrows, and now, as if fate sought to keep this unfortunate's misfortunes always before the people, that reckless Bohemienne, Madame Ratazzi, has written an opera with Byron as the subject and the name. If this work proves to be as successful as the brazenness of its authoress and the fevered notoriety of the subject would seem to promise that the unfortunate English peer's descendents, to the tenth and twelfth generations, may enjoy the pleasure of hearing the misdeeds of their ancestor squealed in tenor and roared in bass, while the goodness and nobleness and beauty of his life and character—and there was no lack of all these qualities—were buried with his bones.

FROM every district of the northern, western and border states comes the parched cry of the farmers for water. Springs that were called unfailing have become dust heaps; rivers that carried busy commerce upon their bosoms would now be improved as highways if they were macadamized, and water works stand idle, refusing to manufacture the article when it is most needed. Every year, from some parts of the country, we are now certain to hear those doleful accounts of the return of clay to dust. Every year that former stranger, drought, is now sure to visit this land, where once his advent was almost as much dreaded, and, as frequently avoided, as that of the cholera is now. And as long as millions of trees are chopped down every year, and no new ones planted, this annual scourge will continue to increase until some day we may come to rival Sahara.

A GOOD deal of amusement was occasioned some months ago by an article by one of our modern humorists, in the Galaxy, upon the body-servant of George Washington, whose oft-repeated deaths have become proverbial. This ancient negro has not, however, attained the coveted position of champion dier without vigorous rivalry from a man of but little less fame, and also of but little less skill in this specialty. We refer to the last male descendant of Wm. Penn, who for a score of years has been periodically dying in both continents, and in abject poverty as well as in comfortable circumstances. He died again a few days ago, and will now, we hope, rest in peace.

A Remarkable Spring in Michigan.

The Lansing (Mich.) Republican says that in attempting to bore a salt well at St. Louis, Gratoit county, in that State, a spring of fresh water was tapped, at the depth of a little more than two hundred feet, which throws out water at the rate of two hundred gallons per minute. This water is thrown some distance above the ground; and the first thought of the people of that village was, that if they had failed in obtaining a salt well, they had secured the means of providing pure, soft, cold water for all. The discovery of its healing qualities was the result of accident. Three traveling agents went down to the spring, and finding the water cold, it was proposed that each should hold his hand in the water, to test the question of physical endurance. One of the party had long suffered from rheumatism, and had been unable to open his hand for many years. This hand was placed in the water, and when compelled, after some moments, to withdraw it, he was able to straighten his fingers, and he exclaimed: "My God! I can open my hand, and have not done it before for ten years." This marvelous healing caused great excitement among the inhabitants, and further experiments proved that the water was filled with electricity or galvanism. Knife blades held in the current flowing from the pipe became sufficiently magnetized in five minutes to lift a tenpenny nail and retain the power as if imparted from a loadstone.

The news of its medical properties spread far and wide, and those suffering from chronic rheumatism and neuralgic diseases came to drink and found restored health from the waters. The analysis of Professor Duffield, of Detroit, proved the truth of the assertion that the waters were charged with electricity. Provision has been made for the accommodation of patients and the furnishing of baths, and St. Louis is reaping a golden harvest. The village is constantly filled with patients, and the cures are almost as remarkable as those performed in days of old at the Pool of Bethesda, when the angel stirred the waters.

A few days since Messrs. Christian and Patterson, of Lansing, went to St. Louis to try the virtue of the waters, and were greatly benefitted. An old man who had been unable, from rheumatism, to walk for more than three years, hobbling about as best he could with crutches, his feet especially being in a terrible condition, he took two baths and drank freely of the water, repeating the same on the day following, and on the third morning he walked ten rods and back without crutches, almost entirely healed in two day's time.

Messrs. Patterson and Christian have been the means of making another discovery in relation to these waters, which will excite a profound sensation throughout the State and country. The water had been conducted through a six-inch tin pipe from the mouth of the spring. For some purpose, a portion of the mouth of this pipe had been cut off and allowed to drop upon the ground, where it was constantly kept wet by the flowing water. Upon the surface of this tin had accumulated a galvanic coat of metal resembling burnished gold.

Mr. Patterson, who discovered it, proposed to bring the entire piece to Lansing, but was told that others might like a piece as a curiosity; and a couple of pieces, each about three inches square, were brought to this city, one of which is in our possession. An examination shows that the coating is as finely placed upon the tin as if done by the best galvanic process, and a test of acids made by Prof. Crane, of the Lansing Museum, proves the metal to be chloride of gold. The water holds this valuable metal in solution, and it may turn out that the spring is not less valuable as a source of wealth to the owners than it is conducive to the health of those afflicted with rheumatism, paralysis, gout, sciatica, dyspepsia and neuralgia. The test of the strongest acids do not destroy the metal, it remaining bright, as before the application.

BURNSIDE DOES A GOOD DEED.—Yesterday morning about 10 o'clock, a laborer, who was at work upon the new pavement at Fifth avenue and Twentieth street, was prostrated by the heat, and fell near the curb stone. No other workmen were near at hand. Major Gen. Ambrose E. Burnside, of Rhode Island, having seen him fall, hastened to his relief, and had him laid in an easy position on the sidewalk, after which the General stopped a passing cart, and obtained ice, which he applied to the poor man's head and hands. By this time a multitude began to collect, but no policeman was in sight. After putting the sufferer in an easier position, and requesting the throng to stand back and give him the benefit of what little air there was, the General himself went to the Union Club for a physician, and returned to look after his charge. Our reporter knew the modest gentleman who was taking such interest in the laborer, but the spectators did not dream that the generous stranger was the distinguished citizen who led Rhode Island to the war. Providence Paper.

STATE NEWS.

WORK on the Dauphin county Soldier's Monument has been suspended.

A HEAVY rain and thunder storm passed over a portion of Lancaster county on Friday of last week, doing much damage to property. Fences were swept away, barns struck by lightning and burned, and cattle killed. The storm raged with great fury in Marietta. The streets of that town were overflowed and people compelled to leave their houses and seek refuge elsewhere.

DR. JOHN HEISELEY, one of the oldest and most respectable citizens of Harrisburg, died at his residence in that city on Saturday evening last, of paralysis, in the seventy-fifth year of his age. He was a soldier of '12, and was wounded in the battle of Bladensburg. From the time of the erection of the Smithsonian Institute, Washington, up to a late day, the Doctor furnished meteorological observations for that popular establishment. He was also a regular contributor to the Journal of the Franklin Institute, of Philadelphia, furnishing meteorological data for that work, and was generally regarded as the "clerk of the weather."

IN DARBY, Delaware county, there was considerable excitement last week over a case of bigamy and attempted suicide. James Dougherty, of that borough, married a young woman in the employ of Mr. Pusey, and some three weeks after the marriage he induced her to give him $500, on the pretext of buying a home. Getting the money, he eloped with a woman to New Castle, Delaware county, and there married her. The legal wife learned of this, and took a quantity of corrosive sublimate, with a view to end all her troubles. The dose was too large to operate with fatal speed, but first inflamed and then produced mortification of the stomach, from which, at last accounts, she was slowly dying. Dougherty was arrested.

IN Washington city, last Thursday, a negro, who lived in a low part of the city with his wife and mother-in-law, vented his drunkun rage upon them by chopping both to death with a hatchet. His wife had that day arisen from childbed, and when her husband came home intoxicated her mother ordered him out of the room. He returned with a hatchet and deliberately hacked their heads to pieces, while they screamed "murder!" until death hushed their voices. The negro expresses no regret. Another double murder took place at Union Hill. N. J., Friday morning. A German who had besotted himself with drinking until natural affection was gone, resented the attempts of his two sons, one 21 and 28 years old respectively, to restrain him, and Friday morning took a carefully sharpend knife and desembowlled both the young men as they lay asleep in bed. Then apparently horrified at what he had, done he cut his own throat. The sons died, but the father did not succeed in taking his own life.

THOU BRINGEST ME LIFE—LUNG-WORT.

One of the truest and most suggestive ideas can be obtained from the caption at the head of this article; for of all diseases which impair human health and shorten human life, none are more prevalent than those which affect the lungs and pulmonary tissues. Whether we regard lung diseases in the light of a merely slight cough, which is but the fore-runner of a more serious malady, or as a deep lesion corroding and dissolving the pulmonary structure, it is always pregnant with evil and foreboding of disaster. In no class of maladies should the physician or the friends and family of the patient be more seriously forewarned than in those of the lungs, for it is in them that early and efficient treatment is most desirable, and it is then that danger can be warded off and a cure effected. In DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE you have a medicine of the greatest value in all these conditions. An alterative, a tonic, a nutrient and resolvent, succoring nature and sustaining the recuperative powers of the system, its beautiful workings, in harmony with the regular functions, can be readily observed by the use of one or two bottles: it will soon break up the chain of morbid sympathies that disturb the harmonious workings of the animal economy. The harrassing cough, the painful respiration, the sputum streaked with blood, will soon give place to the normal and proper workings of health and vigor.

An aggregated experience of over thirty years has enabled Dr. Keyser, in the compounding of his LUNG CURE, to give new hope to the consumptive invalid and at the same time speedy relief in those now prevalent, catarrhal and throat affections, so distressing in their effects and so almost certainly fatal in their tendencies, unless cured by some appropriate remedy. DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE is so thorough and efficient, that any one who has ever used it, will never be without it in the house. It will often cure when everything else fails, and in simple cases will cure oftentimes in a few days.

The attention of patients, as well as medical men, is respectfully invited to this new and valuable addition to the pharmacy of the country.

DR. KEYSER may be consulted every day until 1 o'clock P. M. at his Great Medicine Store, 167 Liberty street, and from 4 to 6 and 7 to 9 at night.

A DEFENSIVE MEDICINE.

"In time of peace prepare for war," is a sound military maxim. "Let not the sickly season find you unprepared," is an equally good rule in medical jurisprudence. The man must be made of iron who finds himself at the close of summer as strong as at its commencement. Such a phenomenon is rare, even among the most robust of the human family. Muscular and constitutional vigor oozes out of us in the broiling weather of July and August, and few of us, at the opening of the Fall, are in the best possible condition to defy the unhealthy influences of the season.

Fever and ague and bilious remittent fevers, together with a variety of complaints that affect the digestive organs, the liver and the bowels, form a portion of the autumn programme. Bear in mind that exhaustion invites these disorders, and that staminal vigor enables the system to repel them. "To be weak is to be miserable," says Satan to his defeated legions, in "Paradise Lost," and the axiom is correct, though it comes from an evil source.

Ho! then, ye weak and feeble, fortify yourselves against the invisible enemy that invades the Autumnal air: The best defence against miasma is a course of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This rare vegetable tonic will improve your appetite, stimulate your digestion, give firmness to your nerves, invigorate your muscular fibre, regulate your secretions, cheer your spirits, and put your entire physique in perfect working order. It is easily done. The standard tonic and alterative which will recuperate and build you up, is not "bad to take," but, on the contrary, a pleasant medicine.

See, however, that you have the genuine article. There are imitations and counterfeits in the market, and they are all worthless or deleterious. Bear in mind that HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is sold only in glass, (never by the gallon or cask), and that each bottle bears a label surmounted by a vignette of St. George and the Dragon, and our revenue stamp over the cork.

TO LET.

TO-LET.—ROOM.—A well furnished Second Story FRONT ROOM for two or more gentlemen. Apply at No. 33 Ninth street.

TO-LET.—ROOM.—A Second story Front Room, furnished, with board suitable for gentleman or lady or two single gentlemen. Inquire at 18 WYLIE STREET.

TO-LET.—Second Story Front ROOM, suitable for single gentlemen, at No. 31 Ninth (formerly Hand) street.

TO LET—FOUR NEW HOUSES of SIX ROOMS each on Jalappa street, Fifth ward, Allegheny, near Allegheny avenue, one square from Manchester street cars. Enquire of T. M. SHOLES, 89 Federal street, corner of Stockton avenue, or CHARLES P. STRIGHT, 171 North avenue, corner of Webster street.

TO-LET.—A first-class STORE ROOM, with good cellar, at No. 46 Ohio street, Allegheny, second door from Diamond, and opposite the Franklin Savings Bank. One of the best locations in the city; has been occupied for twenty years by the subscriber, who is retiring from business. Fixtures complete and in good order. Possession immediately. For particulars, inquire on the premises of
W. CARSON.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE.—One-half of a valuable PATENT for Pennsylvania. A small article used in all houses. A chance for an active young man with a few hundred dollars. Address PATENT, Postoffice Box 690.

FOR SALE.—Desirable West-ERN AVENUE RESIDENCE, Allegheny City; Lot is 48 feet by 120 to a 20 feet Alley; house contains 11 rooms, with all necessary conveniences; will be sold very cheap, as the owner is going to leave the city. Apply to CROFT & PHILLIPS, Real Estate Agents, No. 139 Fourth Avenue.

FOR SALE—FOUNDRY.—Rare chance for an enterprising man with some capital, situated in the town of Washington, the county seat of Washington county, Pa. It is now doing a very successful business as the books will show, and could be increased to double the amount desired, and yet could not supply the demand; will also furnish a partner for a half interest in it if desired by the purchaser. This is a good opening for a practical man, as can be shown beyond a doubt. Apply to CROFT & PHILLIPS, No. 139 Fourth Avenue.

FOR SALE.—SHOP ON NORTH AVENUE, ALLEGHENY CITY, PA.—The building, 38x70 feet is being used by Jas. Godfrey & Co. as a manufacturing establishment. One of the members of the firm wishing to retire from business on account of poor health, we have decided to close out this part of the business at a bargain. Also good will of Steam Power (5 to 10 horse power) tools and machinery; would make a good wagon maker's shop; lot 60x100 feet, on 5 years lease. For further particulars inquire at No. 44 Ohio street, Allegheny, Pa.

PACIFIC RAILWAY GOLD LOAN.

Messrs. DABNEY, MORGAN & CO., 53 Exchange Place, and M. K. JESUP & CO., 12 Pine Street, N. Y., offer for sale the Bonds of the Kansas Pacific Railway. These Bonds pay seven per cent. in Gold; have thirty years to run; are Free from Government Taxation; are secured by a Land Grant of Three Million Acres of the Finest Lands in Kansas and Colorado. In addition to this special grant the Company also owns Three Millions of Acres in Kansas, which are being rapidly sold to develop the country and improve the road. They are a first mortgage upon the extension of the road from Sheridan, Kansas, to Denver, Colorado. The road in operation, 417 miles long, upon which it is also a mortgage, NOW EARNS MORE THAN ENOUGH NET INCOME TO PAY THE INTEREST ON THE NEW LOAN. There is no better security in the market—this being in some respects better than Government Securities. PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD. Price 96, and accrued Interest, in Currency. Pamphlets, Maps and Circulars furnished on application.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, Sept. 21, 1869.

The stringency in the money market continues unabated, forcing down bonds, stocks, and even gold had to yield under its influence; yet the shipments of currency west and south are rather meager for want of small denominations of currency. If the present state of finance in Wall street is only a foretaste of what is to be, how much more will values decline when national causes are combined with artificial measures, to withdraw the circulating medium representing money.

Gold opened strong at 137¾@137⅝, was steady under clique manipulations, and finally settled down to 137¼ in sympathy with the general decline in Wall street. The cliques, however, have bought again a large amount of gold, preparatory to a further rise, and some of the boldest operators already talk of a premium high in the forties. It is, however, supposed that the Secretary of the Treasury can not prevent the rise of gold much above present quotations, as the effect on trade would be most disastrous, and naturally must curtail the receipts from internal taxes for the coming year.

Government bonds are dull, and sell at about as low a point as two week ago, with little inquiry for bonds for investment.

Stocks have been dull, and closed with a general decline under large sales in anticipation of a break in prices to-morrow.

In our local stocks there is likewise an indisposition to buy, and some of the City bonds, most anxiously inquired for a week or two ago, are now offered in large amounts at concessions,

Money is still comparatively easy here.

Quotations as received by Ph. R Mertz: Gold, 137⅝; Silver, 131; Eighty-one's, 120¼; Five Twenties, 1862, 121½; do 1864, 120¼; do 1865, 120⅝; do 1865, Consols, 118⅞; do 1867, 119; do 1868, 119⅛; Ten Forties, 109; New York Central, 200⅜; Erie, ——; Reading, 95¼; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad, 86; Ohio & Mississippi, 131½; Michigan Southern, 96⅞; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 107¾; Chicago & Rock Island, 109¼; Chicago & North Western, 75⅜; Chicago & North Western Preferred, 85¾; Adams Express Company, 55¼; Merchants Union Express, 11⅜; Pacific Mail, —; Western Union Telegraph Company, 36¾; American Express Company 35½.

Sub-Treasury balance, $89,700,442.

Stocks have been feverish all day, being alternately weak and strong. The market closed lower, with an increased pressure to sell, the decline being most marked on New York Central, Northwestern, Rock Island and Lake Shore; Pacific Mail was comparatively firm, and rallied from the lowest point of the day, the reports of the early changes in the direction is generally believed. Rumor says that the next Rock Island dividend will be only 3½ per cent. Chicago and Alton has been unusually active and reliable. The general market closed feverish and unsettled.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, Sept. 21, 1869.

The markets generally are quiet and devoid of any new characteristics worthy of special notice. The demand for almost everything is entirely local and confined mainly to supplying immediate wants of the home trade, while in regard to prices, there are no material changes one way or the other.

APPLES—Dull with a large supply; sales at $1,50@2,50 per bbl.

BUTTER—Is coming in pretty freely, and the market is dull with a drooping tendency; we continue to quote at 30@33, for prime to choice.

CRANBERRIES—Sales of prime eastern cultivated at $11@12 per bbl.

CARBON OIL—Is firm with considerable inquiry on western account, and we quote sales round lots at 29 to 29¼ cents, and 30@31 in small lots.

CHEESE—Is quiet and unchanged, ranging from 14 to 16 cents, as to quality.

EGGS—Sales at 23@24.

FEATHERS—Dull; quoted at 80@85 cents to the trade, and the usual advance for small lots in store.

FLOUR—Is dull and unchanged—receipts only moderate, and the supply, although by no means large, is nevertheless fully up to the demand: we continue to quote western flours at $6,50@6,75 for good; and $7@7,25 for choice.

GRAIN—Red wheat is being sold to the mills at $1,30, and white would probably bring $1,36@1,37. Oats continue excited, scarce and firm at the advance; sales 300 bushels on wharf, at 54; and 1 car at 55, store price, 57@58. Corn is scarce, but the demand is light and prices unchanged—95@$1 for prime yellow. For rye, $1,10 is still the best bid, but there are not many sellers at this price. Barley none offering, $1,25 is still the ruling price.

HAY—Sales at Allegheny Diamond market of 81 loads, at $14@23, mostly at $15@20.

HEMP—Very dull, $205 per ton.

HUSKS—Sales at 2¾@3 cts per pound.

LARD OIL—F. Sellers & Co. quote Extra No. 1, at $1,43@1,45, and No. 2, at $1.05@1,08

PROVISIONS—Market firm, but unchanged; Bacon, Shoulders, 15¾@16; Ribbed Sides, 18¾@19; Clear do, 19¾@20; plain Sugar Cured Hams, 22@22¼; Cavassed do, 23½@24; Sugar Cured Shoulders, 17@17¼; Mess Pork, $34; Lard, 20½ in tirces, 21@21½ in kgs and pails: Dried Beef, 22.

PEANUTS—Sales at 15 cents.

PEACHES—In good supply and dull, ranging from $1 to $2 per bushel.

PLUMS—Prime fresh receipts, in good condition, would bring $4,50 per bushel.

POTATOES—Sales of sweets at $4@4,50 per bbl for Baltimores, and $5 for prime Jerseys.

STRAW—Sold in Allegheny market to-day, at $12 per ton.

SEEDS—Timothy Seed is being sold in small lots at $4,00@4,25. Flaxseed is wanted at $2,20@2,25, and none offering. No inquiry for Clover Seed.

SALT—Is firmer, with sales of car load lots at $1,85 per bbl.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, Sept. 21, 1869.

The oil market was again quiet to-day, and while there was a fair amount of business in the aggregate, yet there did not appear to be that sensitiveness of feeling which has prevailed for some days past. Operators generally have become more reconciled, and appear satisfied to let the market take its natural and legitimate course, and consequently the feeling is not as unsettled and excited as it was at the close of last week. Compared with yesterday, prices have undergone but little change, though the tendency, if anything, seemed to be downward. Antwerp is unchanged.

CRUDE.

Sales 2,000 bbls seller 60 days, 40 to 45 gravity, at 14¾; 500 October seller, at 14¾; 1,000 on broad guage cars at Venango City, at $5,80: 2,000 September, at 14¾; and 1,000 do, at 14⅝. There seems to be no inquiry for either buyer or seller options all year, at least there has been no sales for several days.

REFINED.

Sale 500 bbls each, November and December, at 32½; 500 each October to January inclusive, at 32⅝; and 1,000 last half September, at 32½. From the above it will be seen that prices, compared with yesterday, have undergone no change whatever,

NASBY.

Mr. Nasby Takes a Look Over the Political Horizon and Gives the Result Thereof.

[From the Toledo Blade.]

MOCK CHUNK (wich is in the State of Pennsilvany), Sept. 11, 1869.

At last I hev struck a haven uv rest. At last I hav a shoor abidin place, for a time at least. How long I may stay, or how soon I may be compelled to pick up my landlord's spare shirt and travel, I can't tell. But what do I care? For the present I am under the wing uv a man who hez twenty millions uv dollars, and who is yoosin it at a terrific rate. Some few uv the drops uv the golden shower is a fallin onto me, and I am content. That is, I am content personally. I am as well off ez I cood be. I hev twice penetrated the august presence uv the Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvany, represent-in myself ez President uv a Democratic club in Philadelphy, and twice have I received a hundred dollars to carry on the good work. The young man wich guards the outer door uv the canditorial manshen is a most acoot judge uv human nacher. The servant at the door askt for credenshels, at wich the young man who happened to be in the hall, noticin me, rebuked him for delayin me.

"Terrence!" remarkt he sharply, "admit all sich noses without question. Yoo bet they are our friends."

That nose kez cost me thousands uv other people's dollars to keep it up in color, Thank Heaven it's repayin me some uv the trouble I hev gone to on its account.

I am well enuff off, and possibly ought to be satisfied, but the condshen uv the Dimocrisy affix me. The fact iz, we are in a bad way, and thur ain't no way out uv it. We ain't got no yoonanimity—we ain't got nothin to fite for, and the country hez hed universally good crops. The weather's bin agin us. Ef we cood hev hed rain in harvest enuff to hev rusted the wheat, and enuff follerin the wheat harvest to hev rotted the pertaters and then a juicy attact uv cholera and yellow fever, and other disorders uv that natcher, so thet the people cood hev got dissatisfied and ugly and sick, ther wood hev been some hope for us. The potato rot in Western Pennsylvany wood hev made thousands of votes this fall alone. But wat's the yoose uv talkin to farmers with teers in yoor eyes uv a country goin to roon, when every mother's son uv em hev ther pockets stuffed with greenbax and a barn ful uv wheat to bring more? Wat's the yoose uv clamerin for a change when the country's doin ez well as it kin anyhow?

Then agin, our management hez bin friteful. In Ohio, we made a boggle at the beginning, in the nomenashen uv Rosecrans. It wuzn't in the nacher uv things for our patriots who hed shot officers sent out by this Rosecrans, to arrest their sons wich hed taken bounty and had deserted to Canady, to vote for Rosecrans, particularly ez hundreds uv em had ben dragged to Bastiles for emptyin their rifles at em. The hurrahs stuck in their throats. I must confess that they made a brave attempt at it, but they looked sick while they did it. Their efforts to hurrah for Rosecrans, and the face they made uv it remindse me uv an insident which occurred to me wunst.

I hed a friend whose name it wuz Brown, who wuz given to indulgenee in the flowin bole to a fearful extent. Wun nite he attempted to be convivyel on a new brand uv whisky, and it floored him. At 11 P. M. I found him clingin to a lamp post and vomitin ez tho ther wuz a minitoor earthquake into his sides.

"Brown!" remarked I, layin my hand affectionately onto his shoulder, "Brown are you sick?"

"Sick! SICK!" replied he, swingin around to the other side uv the post and dischargin another avalanche, "Sick! h—l! do yoo think I'm doin this for the fun uv the thing?"

Our Democrats in Ohio swallered Rosecrans, but their hurrahs were so much like the retchin uv a man with a load oato his stumick, that it reminded me uv my friend Brown.

In Pennsylvania we aint much better off. Our candidate has pints about him. He wuz a copperhead durin the war, which makes all uv that class uv Democrats enthoosiastic in his support; but on the other hand it drives off the war Democrats, without which we aint worth shucks. He has money though, and ez he's bleedin freely he may keep the organizashenalive till we kin make a fire with a man which we kin elect.

The principle trouble is however, to find out wat Democracy is at this juncter. In Ohio it's agin nigger ekality and in favor uv either paying off the bonds in greenbacks or repudiashen; in Tennessee it's nigger suffrage and nigger office holdin; in Conetcticut it's payin the bonds in gold, interest and principles; in Californy it's anti-Chinese, and in Looisiana it's Chinese. In Maine our people are runnin a perhibertory licker law, and everywhere else they are for free whisky. In Illinois, Democracy is free trade; in In Pennsylvania it's high protective tariff, and so on around. In short, it's so mixed that I woodent agree to go from one county to another to make speeches, without having first carefully ascertained wat the Democracy uv that pertikler county believed in.

I got Democratic papers from all the States one day, and by persistent readin of em for five hours I became so mixed as to be a promisin candidate for a loonatic Asylum.

I shel stay wher I am so long ez there is anything to be got out uv the posishen. I hev personated a Cheerman uv Philadelphia Committees twice with success, to-morrow I shel try it agin and after that sich other characters as may occur to me. I must make hay while the sun shines, for the furious assaults onto Packer's pile is redoosin it fearfully.

YALE COLLEGE.—The New Haven Palladium says: "The examination of candidates for the Freshman class was concluded last Wednesday. So far as can be ascertained the class will number one hundred and fifty or one hundred and sixty, several having conditions yet to be made up. This is as large a class as the preceding one when first admitted, and compares favorably in scholarship with the average of classes of late years."

BUYING GLOVES IN GIBRALTAR.

BY MARK TWAIN.

A very handsome young lady in the store offered me a pair of blue gloves. I did not want blue, but she said they would look very pretty on a hand like mine. The remark touched me, somehow it did seem rather a comely member. I tried a glove on my left, and blushed, a little. Manifestly the size was too small for me. But I felt gratified when she said:

"Oh, it is just right!"—yet I knew it was no such thing.

I tugged at it diligently, but it was discouraging work. She said:

"Ah! I see you are accustomed to wearing kid gloves—but some gentlemen are so awkward about putting them on."

It was the last compliment I had expected. I only understand putting on the buckskin article perfectly. I made an effort, and tore the glove from the base of the thumb into the palm of the hand—and tried to hide the rent. She kept up her compliments, and I kept up my determination to deserve them or die.

"Ah, you have had the experience!" (A rip down the back of the hand.) "They are just right for you—your hand is very small—if they tear you need not pay for them." (A rent across the middle.) "I can always tell when a gentleman understands putting on kid gloves. There is a grace about it that only comes with long practice." (The whole afterpart of the glove "fetched away," as the sailors say, the fabric parted across the knuckles, and nothing was left but a melancholy ruin.)

I was too much flattered to make an exposure, and throw the merchandise on the angel's hands. I was hot, vexed, confused, but still happy; but I hated the other boys for taking such absorbing interest in the proceedings. I wished they were in Jerico. I felt exquisitely mean when I said cheerfully:

"This one does very well; it fits elegantly. I like a glove that fits. No, never mind, ma'am, never miud; I'll put the other on in the street. It is warm, hee."

It was warm. It was the warmest place I ever in. I paid the bill, and as I passed out with a fascinating bow, I thought I detected a light in the woman's eye that was gently ironical; and when I looked back from the street, she was laughing all to herself about something or other, I said to myself, with withering sarcasm, "Oh, certainly, you know how to put on kid gloves, don't you?—a self-complacent ass, ready to be flattered out of your senses by every petticoat that chooses to do it!"

A Domestic Comedy—The Danger of Scribbling Poetry on Wrapping Paper.

The Chicago Tribune tells this story:

"A well known dry goods establishment on State street was the scene of an extremely comical incident a day or two since. It appears that one of the salesmen quite recently wedded the idol of his heart, and consequently his mind is greatly absorbed in the contemplation of his happiness. Like another Orlando, he loves his Rosalin so well that the secret of his passion will not abide with him, and he must e'en confide it to his surroundings. But instead of carving the poetical effusions of his love-sick heart on the trees of the forest, he has been wont to impart them to little scraps of paper, on which, during his leisure moments, he penciled such tender things as—

'Two souls with but a single thought,
Two hearts that beat as one:'

"Or such passionate things as—

"'To thee I've breathed my bosom's vow,
I've poured its fondest sigh;
I've sworn by thine own lovely brow
To live, or for thee die.'

"Or such loving things as—

"'The treasures of the deep are not so precious
As are the conceal'd comforts of a man
Locked up in a woman's love.'

"Scraps of paper thus scribbled upon always covered the counter and shelves in the vicinity where our ardedt Benedict measured silks and fine linen, and were the source of no little amusement to the rest of the store employes.

"On Saturday afternoon last, while the establishment was crowded with customers, and every body was so busy that Orlando did not find sufficient time even to indite a single line to his most adored, an excited individual, with his cravat askew, his hair dishevelled and a desire for blood visible in each line of his countenance, rushed into the place and struck an attitude of defiance in the middle of the floor. In his uplifted right hand he held a fragment of brown wrapping paper, and after cutting a pigeon wing or two, he rushed frantically toward our poetic acquaintance and thrust the paper in his face with the remark, 'Did you write that?' The young salesman glanced at the ominous paper, and with a faint and sickly smile, acknowledged that it was his scribbling.

"'Well, sir, read it; I want your employers to know what sort of a man they have got in their store. Read it aloud, I say.'

"Everybody in the establishment had now congregated about the two men, and the young man, as bidden, read:

"'Come in the evening, or come in the morning,
Come when you're looked for, or come without warning,
Kisses and welcome shall be there before you,
And the oftener you come here, the more I'll adore you.'

"'There, sir,' continued the excited intruder; 'how dare you give such stuff to my wife—my wife whom I adore? You wretch!'"and with that he reached for the hair of the poet. His intention was interfered with, however, and as soon as the young gentleman had conquered his confusion he went into an explanation, which in the end proved satisfactory. It appears that the effusion, intended to convey the feelings he entertained for his own wife, had accidently been wrapped up with the dress pattern of the irate husband's wife, and on opening the package at the house it dropped on the floor.

"The contents were greedily devoured by the somewhat jealous husband, and the wife was taken to task. She of course denied all knowledge of the matter, and his wrath then turned upon the perpetrator. It is perhaps needless to say that poetic scribbling is henceforth tabooed in that establishment."

A CORRESPONDENT of the Russian journal, the Kraj, writing from Kracow, says: "The fanatical set of Illystes have committed such excesses in the neighborhood of Cracow that the Government has been forced to order an inquiry. This sect, allied in some degree to the fanatical practices of the Indian Thugs, regarding assassination as an offering agreeable to the Deity, have committed murders in the rural districts."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the livor and put it to work; then the appedite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens into the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the duets of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care,) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abcesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood; then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all billious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparation with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompany each, making it most absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. mv19:151-d&F

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Mayor Drum yesterday disposed of five common cases which constituted the business brought before him during the day.

Assault and Battery.—Barbara Lust made information before Justice Heisel, yesterday, charging Joseph Lust with assault and battery. A warrant was issued.

The Pioneers.—The members of the Second Ward "Pioneer" Grant Club are requested to meet at their headquarters, at seven o'clock, sharp. A full attendance is expected.

Seventh and Eighth Wards.—The Marching Phalanx of the Seventh and Eighth wards meet at the Franklin street school house this evening at seven o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

During the past month, over two hundred prisoners have been sent to the workhouse, but as the population of that rural retreat, like the watering places, is always changing, no difficulty was experienced in providing accomodation for every visitor.

Two Informations.—John H. Dittler complained to Alderman Thomas, yesterday, that James Danner, while intoxicated, had entered his house and first abused him and then treated his wife in a rude manner. The accused was arrested and held to bail for Court.

Trespassing.—W. K. Mulholland complained to Alderman McMasters, yesterday, that George Matter had trespassed upon his premises, damaging his fruit trees and otherwise injuring the property. The Alderman issued a warrant for George's arrest. The parties reside in Etna borough.

New Patterns.—Messrs. S. M. Kier & Co., No. 363 Liberty street, have just received from their manufactory—the Keystone—a choice lot of fine queensware of new and beautiful patterns, to which they invite the attention of purchasers. The Keystone ware has achieved such well merited favor in the community that it needs no commendation. Those who have not examined any of the stock should do so at their earliest convenience.

Obituary.—Sunday afternoon, Mr. Nathaniel P. Pearson, one of our oldest citizens, died at Louisville, Ky., where he had gone on a brief visit. Mr. Pearson was in the eighty-third year of his age at the time af his death. He served with credit in the war of 1812, and has since been engaged in business here, which enlarged his circle of acquaintances, all of whom esteemed him highly. The funeral will take place to-day, from the residence of his son, P. N. Pearson, Bingham street, Birmingham.

Cross Suits.

Margaret Dickson and Amanda Douglass engaged in litigation yesterday, the nature of which was so complicated that the magesterial wisdom and analytical powers of Aldermen Butler and Shore were required to settle the dispute. The informations made were in the shape of surety of the peace complaints, and contained statements of all manner of evil things which the twain bandied between each other. Matters were finally adjusted by a compromise, the parties having the pleasure of dividing the costs between them. They are neighbors and reside at the head of Wylie street.

John Owens.

We see it stated in the New York papers that Mr. John Owens, the great comedian, contributed one hundred dollars to the Avondale relief fund. This is characteristic of the man. In addition to being the leading actor of the day, he has a most excellent heart. Mr. Owens, we learn, will be at the Opera House next week, commencing Monday night, during which time we will have "John Unit" and other specialties. Seats will be in demand at the Opera House during his engagement, as our people have a very high appreciation of the man as well as of his talent.

Another Cutting Affray.

About half-past ten o'clock last night a cutting affray occurred on Fifth avenue, near the Old Theatre. It appears that David Hall and James Young got into a difficulty in Buckalew's saloon and came out on the sidewalk to fight and were striking at each other when officer Jones interfered. Hall, it is alleged, turned his attention towards the police officer and struck him on the head with a knife, inflicting a slight wound. He was taken to the watch-house and locked up, and the officer, we are informed, will make information before the Mayor this morning, charging Hall with felonious assault and battery.

Another Homicide.

The shooting affray at Saw Mill Run, an account of which we published Monday, in which Frank Schnecke was shot by his father-in-law, Thomas Caroon, resulted in a homicide, notwithstanding the wound was thought to be a very trifling one. Monday night it appears mortification set in and at one o'clock the injured man expired.

Coroner Clawson held an inquest yesterday morning.

Following is the substance of the testimony:

Hugh Robers testified—I saw Schnecke pick up a stone on the Ferry Landing, and start toward Caroon's house. Caroon walked away. Schnecke threw the stone, and Caroon shot him.

D. P. Henderson corroborated the preceding witness, as did also Samuel Scofield, who said the shooting occurred at about two o'clock P. M., of Saturday, September 18th, 1869.

Henry Hartman testified in substance the same as the others.

Thomas Sheridan testified that before the affray he saw Schnecke come into the bar-room and behave disorderly.

Drs. McCook, Hays and Schroeckendieck made a post mortem examination and failed to find the ball. They gave their opinion that death resulted from the wound.

The jury found that the deceased, Frank Schnecke came to his death from the effects of a pistol shot wound fired from the hand of Thomas Carson.

Soon after the inquest, information was made by a friend of the deceased, before Mayor Brush, charging Caroon with murder, He was arrested and committed to jail for trial.

EDUCATIONAL.

Meeting of the Central Board of Education—Interesting Reports.

A meeting of the Central Board of Education of the city was held in the rooms of the Board, Lloyd & Black's building, Fourth avenue, Tuesday, Septemper 21st, 1869.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mr. Wilson.

Members present: Messrs. Aiken, Anderson, Chadwick, Craig, Cuddy, Getty, Harrison, Hartman, Humbert, Mays, Miller, Mitchell, Neckermann, Nobbs, Sergeant, Shaw, Taylor and President Wilson.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

HIGH SCHOOL.

The Secretary read the report of the Principal of the High School, of which the following is a

The report states that a number of applicants had been re-examined for admission to the High School, and a number of them had attained the average requisite to admission.

The report was received and filed.

FRENCH AND GERMAN.

The Secretary read the following communication from Mr. Dean, Principal of the High School, relative to the introduction of the French and German languages in the High School:

PITTSBURGH, Sept., 21, 1869.

To the Central Board of Education.

GENTLEMEN:—The High School Committee having decided to recommend the introduction of the French and German languages into the course of study, of the High School, I venture to make a few explanatery statements as to the relation which the matter may have to the present situation of rooms, hours &c. The schedule now in operation will permit the use of one room for that purpose, for the first hour in the morning, four days in each week. This is the extent to which the High School could introduce these studies within its regular session, without an entire re-arrangement of its schedule. In connection with the commercial department, there is ample room, and ample time can be afforded, but in my opinion, a certain style and line only, of these languages should be taught in connection with that department—namely such as would be available in business.

On the whole it is desirable that an experiment be made for the remainder of this school year, but it should be of a kind limited by the circumstances of the school and guided by the discretion of the faculty. A very small appropriation, say $300, would we think be sufficient for the experiment this year.

The report was received and filed.

PHILOTUS DEAN.

FINANCIAL.

The Secretary reported that during the mounth of Aug., warrants to the amount of $6,541.27 had been drawn. The report was received and filed.

Mr. Getty, from the Finance Committee, had, in accordance, with a resolution of the board, considered the question of having $50,000 of the school fund, now in the hands of the Treasurer of the Board placed on interest. The committee instructed the Secretary to procure legal advice on the question, which has been done. Accompanying the report was a legal opinion by James Kuhn, Esq., stating that the money could not be loaned legally.

Mr. Nobbs moved that the report be received and the action of the Committee in procuring legal advice be approved.

Mr. Craig objected to the motion, He said the Finance Committee had been instructed by the Board to loan the money and not to procure legal advice. If they had taken legal advice it should be at their own expense.

Mr. Cuddy, of the Finance Committee, defended the action of the Committee.

Mr. Craig did not desire to press the matter of loaning the money, but he was opposed to the action of the Committee in attempting to saddle an attorneys' fee upon the Board which the Union bank should pay.

After further discussion the motion of Mr. Nobbs was adopted.

Mr. Shaw moved that the bond of the Treasurer be increased to $50,000.

Mr. Chadwick amended by making it $100,000.

Mr. Harrison called for the yeas and nays, and the amendment was adopted by a vote of 10 yeas to 8 nays.

The motion as amended was adopted.

NIGHT SCHOOLS.

Mr. Nobbs, from the Committee on Night Schools, presented the report of said Committee, which has been published.

Mr. Craig moved that the report be received and adopted.

Mr. Taylor so amended as to allow an appropriation of $100 when the attendance exceeded fifty scholars.

The amendment was adopted.

Mr. Anderson, from the Committee on High Schools, submitted the report of the Committee, as follows:

The Committee on High Schools would respectfully report, That it has in conjunction with the officers of the Board and City Superintendent rented the rooms now occupied by the Central Board City Superintendent and Secretay, of Messrs. Lloyd & Black, at $500 per annum, with the privilege of a three years extension of lease.

The furnishing and general fitting up of these rooms has been done under our supervision, with a view to having commodious apartments, at as low a cost as possible, and consistent with the requirements of the public school interest.

The Committee on High Schools would recommend so much of a former resolution as require all the teachers to be in attendance at 8;30 A. M., be amended so as to provide that at least two shall be in attendance at 8:30 A. M., a sufficient number for police duty, the arrangements for which are to be under the direction of the Principal.

We would further recommend that a holiday be allowed the High School on the day of the laying of the corner stone of the new High School building.

The report was received and adopted.

Mr. Harrison moved that a holiday be allowed to all the Public Schools on the day of laying the corner stone of the new High School building, and that the teachers be invited to be present. The motion was adopted.

Mr. Craig moved that the Committee on High School be a Committee of Arrangements for the corner stone laying. Adopted.

Mr. Hartman presented the following:

WHEREAS, The 26th section of the city school law enjoins upon the Central Board of Education, on or before the first Monday of June, annually, the adoption of all books which are to be used in the public schools during the ensuing year; and

WHEREAS, The Central Board during the month of May last complied with section 26, and adopted a series of school books, among which was "Burt's Grammar," which book has been in use in the schools for several years, and

WHEREAS, There has recently been another grammar published, known as "Burt's Practical Grammar," which differs in text and quantity of matter from the former, and which is now in use in some of our public schools without having been adopted and without the knowledge of this Board; therefore

Resolved, That the Central Board claiming and acting from its legal right disapproves of the introduction of Burit's Practical Grammar, and hereby instruct the City Superintendent to ascertain in which schools said books are now in use and notify the Principals of such schools where the books are in use, that the use of said books be discontinued without delay, and the grammar classes throughout the city must conform to the grades established by the Superintendent and Committee on Grades.

Referred to the Committee on Grades and Text Books, on motion of Mr. Sargeant.

Mr. Getty moved that the applicants for admission to the High School referred to in the report of the Principal be admitted. Adopted.

The matter of introducing the French and German languages, in the course of studies of the High School was then taken up,

Mr. Harrison moved that an appropriation of $300 be made in accordance with the recommendation of the Principal.

Messrs. Aiken, Shaw, Chadwick and others opposed the recommendation, and Messrs. Cuddy, Craig and Nickermann favored the proposition.

After considerable discussion the motion was adopted by a vote of eleven yeas to five nays.

Mr. Nobbs moved that the citizens generally be invited to attend the meetings of the Board. Adopted.

Mr. Craig asked for an additional teacher in the Fourteenth ward. Referred to Committee on Teachers and Salaries, with power to act.

Mr. Sergeant stated that a number of persons who obtained exonerations from the County Commissioners had applied to have their money refunded. On motion of Mr. Nobbs, the President and Secretary were instructed to draw warrants in favor of all such applicants.

Mr. Sargeant read a number of bills which were ordered to be paid.

Mr. Humbert applied for an additional teacher for the Howard District. Referred to the Committee on Teachers and Salaries.

The annual report of the City Superintendent, Prof. G. J. Luckey, was presented, and on motion of Mr. Hartman was referred to the Printing Committee, with instructions to have five hundred copies printed for distribution.

On motion adjourned.

THE COURTS.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Mellon.

TUESDAY, September 21.—Felix Bruder and Barbara Bruder were tried for assault and battery, Gotfried Zang, prosecutor. The jury found a verdict of not guilty, the costs to be divided between the prosecutor and defendants.

John W. Jones was convicted of larceny and sentenced to two months' imprisonment in the county Work-house.

The next case taken up was that of John A. Goetz, of Natrona, charged, on oath of H. Valentine, with perjury. The offense was alleged to have been committed in a civil suit before Justice Kelley, of Natrona, in May last. Jury out.

Wm. Smith and John E. Thompson plead guilty to indictments for larceny. Sentences deferred.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Keenan & Clark, indicted for libel, A. M. Bowser, prosecutor, was next called. The defendants are proprietors of the Greensburg Democrat, and the alleged libel consists of the publication in that paper, of an article headed "Bowser in Trouble Again." Mr. Swartzwelder, attorney for defendants, moved to quash the indictment on the ground that the matter complained of was not libelous. The motion was argued and the Court reserved its decision until Wednesday morning.

TRIAL LIST FOR WEDNESDAY.

No. 61 Com. vs. Geo. Harrison.
" 74 " " John Whittinger.
" 111 " " Rudolph A. Lipp.
" 122 " " W, W. Wilson and G. Myers.
" 127 " " Molly Smith.
" 163 " " Wm. Einstein 11 cases.
" 161 " " Charles Kohl.
" 159 " " Charles Fink.

Common Pleas—Judge Stowe.

TUESDAY, September 21.—The cases reported on trial yesterday have not yet been concluded.

Hitty Maginn.

In yesterday's issue, our correspondent under the above nom de plume gives a graphic description of the ancient town of Columbus, in Kentucky. This delectable town is on the bank of the Mississippi, twenty miles below Cairo, and is the western terminus of the Mobile and Ohio Railroad. The rebels were strongly intrenched there in 1861. Their position was wrested from them in the spring of 1862. Soon afterwards we visited the town and were there frequently during the following summer and winter. There was then no Saint Elmo or any other saint in the town. We, with our companion, arrived from Cairo, having with us each a bag of gold. We could get no place whereon to lay our heads, and were driven to lodge on the porch of the Quarter Master's quarters, using our gold bags for pillows, a guard of soldiers being detailed for our protection. We saw there Government stores designed for Grant's army and Corinth rotting on the shore for lack of shelter and for lack of transportation. We had on this and many other occasions woful experience of the character given of the place by Hitty Maginn, and say to him hit him again.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—Mrs. Emma Waller's rendition of "Elizabeth, Queen of England" at the Opera House last night, was truly excellent, and her support from the company was all that could be desired. Mr. Chester's Essex was equal, and in some respects superior to that of Taylor, and the entire cast was good. The piece will be repeated to-night, when we hope to see the house full, as it is seldom the public have an opportunity of seeing a lady of so much talent upon the stage as Mrs. Waller, supported by such an excellent company.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE—The entertainments at the "Old Drury" continue to be of the most interesting character, and as a consequence the house is crowded nightly. Mr. Taylor is the chief attraction, but not the only one by far. Remember the regular Wednesday matinee this afternoon.

THE GREGORIES.—The Academy of Music was filled last night, and the audience was delighted with the excellent entertainment given by the Gregories. They will give an entire change of programme to-night. Everyboyd should see them.

Get Some of Marvin's superior biscuit from the manufactory, No. 91 Liberty street, or ask your grocer for them.

Organization of the Twelfth Ward Republicans.

A meeting of the Republican voters of the Twelfth ward was held in the school house last evening, for the purpose of organization. H. C. Mackrell, Esq., was called to the chair; and Mr. A. M. Hamilton elected Secretary. On motion, the following committee on permanent organization was appointed, viz.: Messrs. J. E. McKelvey, Dr. B. B. Brashear, J. M. Reed, P. C. Messick, John R. Hague, and D. McClelland.

The Committee, after a brief absence, reported the following permanent organization: President—H. C. Mackrell, Esq.; Vice Presidents—Messrs. J. R. Hague, Robert Cummings, Clark McQueen, Christ. Woods and Dr. B. B. Brashear; Secretaries—Messrs. Samuel Mitchell, Alex. M. Hamilton and John H. Jones. Finance Committee—Messrs. A. J. Cochrane, D. McClelland, W. Welsh, J. H. Nobbs, P. C. Messick, Robt. Matthews, Wm. Clark, Thos. G. Smythe, Wm. J. Hammond, J. W. Mackrell, Wm, Johnston, Saml. McKee and J. C. Rayburn. The report was accepted and adopted.

Committees on Registry and canvassing the various blocks were appointed, which are to report at a meeting to be held on Friday evening next, when candidates for the ward offices will be nominated.

Republican Rally.

Last evening a grand Republican rally was held at the old Fifth Ward Market House. The attendance was unusually large and the enthusiasm up to the highest pitch. The Arsenal brass band enlivened the occasion with excellent music. Mr. Joseph Irwin presided with a large list of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. Rousing speeches were made by Messrs. J. G. Siebeneck, in German, and W. C. Moreland, R. B. Parkinson and F. C. Negley, in English, and at a late hour the meeting adjourned with enthusiastic cheers for the State and county ticket.

The following is the Republican Vigilance Committee of Temperanceville: Matthew Grier, A. H. Weaver, Thomas Ralph, Phillip Weaver, Jno. S. Hunter, I. C. Dorrington, Geo. Wittengel, Jacob Smith, Adam Wagner, Abraham Biren, Wm. J. Howell, Wm. C. Taylor, T. J. Richardson, Jas. Critchlow, Columbus Patterson, Jno. S. Hollingshead, Jas. W. Ranken Cuddy, John Smith, Howell Jones. The Committee will next meet at the School House in the Borough on Wednesday evening, September twenty-third.

The Art of Dressing.

No man can be well dressed with a shabby hat. In every other respect his outfit may be perfect, but a deficiency in this particular will aggravatingly deteriorate from his appearance. A knowledge of this fact, and an arrangement of the toilet accordingly, is one of the great secrets of neat and perfect dressing, and to this many who are taken as models, by their acquaintances, owe their success. This truth thus recognized, it then becomes a question with all who wish to appear well where a suitable article can be procured, a question which in Pittsburgh is easily answered by the existence of that unrivalled hat and cap emporium, Ramaley's Parlor, No. 22 Fifth avenue. At this establishment everything in the line of the business may be found, of the latest styles and always in season; besides which the prices asked for, to all who wish to purchase cheaply, without being swindled, are additional attractions. At present Mr. Ramaley has in store a new stock just purchased for the fall trade, to which attention is especially invited. The assortment is very large, and none can fail to be suited in a selection.

A Valuable work.

We cannot well see how our people could afford to spare from our serial publications, the Pittsburgh Real Estate Register, one of the most important anxiliaries to real estate transactions imaginable, published by Croft & Phillips, No. 139 Fourth avenue. It is a complete compendium and description of the large lot and parcels of land and real estate which this reliable and enterprising firm have on hand for sale from time to time, and besides better shadows the condition of the market in houses and lands than all the combined newspaper advertisements under the same head. The enterprising firm recieve a large share of public patronage and deservedly so too, for their vast business has ever been conducted in such a manner as to merit the fullest degree of confidence. They buy and sell real estate for others at the most advantagous prices and deal universally with firmness and precision. Those who desire purchasing real estate, farms, houses or lands, should not fail to favor Messrs. Croft & Phillips with their consideration.

Mr. W. W. Moorhead, the successful and enterprising trimming and notion merchant, No. 81 Market street, is now receiving a very large and complete stock of fine goods peculiar to his line of trade, which he offers to his customers and the public generally at prices much lower than even those which prevailed anterior to the war. Openings are daily made of fresh invoices, and we invite the attention of our readers to the splendid and unique stock of general novelties to be found nowhere else in the city. Call and see for yourselves.

Dangerous Amusement—Serious Result.

Last night about eleven o'clock, John Leonard, a boy about twelve years of age, was amusing himself in Denny's alley, off Webster avenue, by throwing brickbats, when one of the missles struck a companion, Cornelius Sexton, on the right temple, crushing in the side of the head and inflicting injuries which it is feared will prove fatal. The injured boy after the accident was carried to his home, on Denny's alley, near by, and Dr. McMeal called in, who pronounced the injuries of a very serious character. Between twelve and one o'clock officer Craig succeeded in arresting Leonard, who confessed to the throwing, but said he had no intention of injuring his companion. He was locked up to await the result of the case. At one o'clock this morning young Sexton was living, but no hopes were entertained of his recovery.

Register, Register, Register is the Cry.

Politicians are urging every one entitled to a vote to get Registered before the election. Now a word to those persons, why don't they use as much energy in hunting up those of their friends seeking homes and have them call at the Real Estate Office of Croft & Phillips, No. 139 Fourth avenue, and get the "Pittsburgh Real Estate Register," they would find in it such a vast selection of Farms, Mills, Stores, Houses, Lots, City and Suburban property in such a great variety that they cannot fail to get suited in a home. Come, every one and get Registered, at No. 139 Fourth avenue. The "Register" will be given away Gratis or sent by mail free to any address. tfd1F

Be Beautiful.

If you desire beauty you should use Hagan's Magnolia Balm.

It gives a soft, refined, satin-like texture to the Complexion, removes Roughness, Redness, Blotches, Sunburn, Tan, &c., and adds a tinge of Pearly Bloom to the plainest features. It brings the Bloom of Youth to the fading cheek and changes the rustic Country Girl into a Fashionable City Belle.

In the use of the Magnolia Balm lies the true secret of Beauty. No Lady need complain of her Complexion who will invest 75 cents in this delightful article.

Country Flannels and blankets—new goods—at Bates & Bell's.

Chapped Hands, face and all roughness of the skin, certainly cured by using the Juniper Tar Soap, made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York. It surpasses all other remedies as it will prevent roughness of the skin if used during cold weather. It is easily applied, avoiding all the trouble of the greasy compounds now in use. It can be used by ladies with the most tender skin, without irritation or pain, making it soft and clear. Sold by the druggists generally. wT

Marvin's Lemon or Fruit Buscuit, Water, Sugar, Boston or Cream Crackers, always fresh, sweet and wholesome, should be on the table of every family, as an agreeable substitute for sour bread or for variety in the way of palatable food they are exceedingly desirable. On hand at 91 Liberty street or to be obtained at any of the grocery stores.

The "Continental," Fifth avenue, below the Post Office, still continues to be the favorite resort of all classes who appreciate substantial, appetizing and healthful fare. Mr. Holtzheimer as a caterer to the public taste in his line, is certainly a success. So say all his patrons, who are presumed to know.

Go Early.—Ladies would do well to take time by the forelock and purchase immediately fall outfits from the new stock just received at Moorhead's, No 81 Market street. The best of goods and the most economical prices are the attractions of this establisement.

A Jolly Double Header.

All the stories told of the Siamese Twins hardly equal this of the famous Scotch double man, of whom the following curious account is given in the Rerum Scotiarum Hishtoria: "During the reign of James the Third, of Scotland, and at his court, their lived a man, double above the waist, single below that region. The King caused him to be carefully brought up. He rapidly acquired a knowledge of music. The two heads learned several languages; they debated together, and the two upper halves occasionly fought. They lived, generally however, in the greatest harmony. When the lower part of the body was tickled, the two individuals felt it together; but when, on the other hand, one of the upper individuals was touched, he alone felt the effect. This monstrous being died at the age of 28 years. One of the bodies died several days before the other."

THE TEMPERANCE BLESSING.—The Philadelphia North American says: One of the most active measures for the redemption of inebriates is that organized by Mr. Charles Heritage, and known as the Temperance Blessing. Meetings are held every Tuesday evening in the west room of Independence Hall, and addresses are delivered and the virtues of sobriety so clearly demonstrated that in three months one hundred and twenty-three names were added to the pledge to abstain from the use of liquors. Those who feel an interest in the subject are always welcome, and we dare say that a visit to the place would tempt the loosening of the purse strings to help the good cause along. Mr. Heritage has also caused to be printed for distribution in tract form the letter written by Charles Orne, convicted of murder and hanged at Stroudsburg. The unhappy man ascribed his position to the use of intoxicating beverages.
